Witchfinder, the Mark of the Beast 1976-01-01

christians view the mark of the beast as something futuristic the receiving of the mark of the beast commands the wrath and indignation of god and the consequences are severe many christians has already accepted the mark of the beast unbeknownst to them they do not have a clear vision as to whom or what is the beast each denomination has their interpretation of the beast and how and when it will manifest the word says and the third angel followed them saying with a loud voice if any man worship the beast and his image and receive his mark in his forehead or in his hand the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of god which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the lamb revelation 14 9 10 many christian denominations believe the prophecy points to the papacy as the beast however in scripture the papal system has never been a beast is not a beast and will never be a beast to call that system the beast is to take the word of god on a very long stretch this horn functions both politically and as a christian church it persecuted and killed any christian who disagrees with its dogmas the word says the saints shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time and he would come to his end unto the end nowhere in scripture is it indicated that this horn power will regain its dominion to persecute the saints of god as it did for over twelve hundred years then who is the beast this book has the answer reviewed by online book club official review the mark of the beast revelation 13

Jennifer A. Nielsen, author of the NYT and USA Today bestselling Ascendance trilogy, has woven an electrifying tale of greed and power, magic and destiny, and one boy's courage at the heart of it all. When Nic, a slave in the mines outside of Rome, is forced to enter a sealed cavern containing the lost treasures of Julius Caesar, he finds much more than gold and gemstones. He discovers an ancient bulla, an amulet that belonged to the great Caesar and is filled with a magic once reserved for the gods. Magic some Romans would kill for, now with the deadly power of the bulla pulsing through his veins, Nic is determined to become free. But instead, he finds himself at the center of a ruthless conspiracy to overthrow the emperor and spark the Praetor War, a battle to destroy Rome from within. Traitors and spies lurk at every turn, each more desperate than the next to use Nic's newfound powers for their own dark purposes. In a quest to stop the rebellion, save Rome, and secure his own freedom, Nic must harness the magic within himself and defeat the empire's most powerful and savage leaders.

Excerpt from The Mark: So Loda went her way back and forth as she would, and her eyes were cool and her pulses quiet for all the adulation. Perhaps she knew too much of men to be easily affected. So many came with tangled lives in their hands for her long, pliant fingers to unravel. Lordly Rajputs waited on her gifts, and old decrepit fakirs with barely a rag that would hold them in decency, Borahs, Parsees, Hindus, Moguls, Aye, and wild men from the hills brought their tangles, and some she touched with sleep and some with laughter, and again some with fear, and whom she chose to draw she drew, and whom she chose to bind she bound. But of her own life, her own fate, she was all unconscious. When she tried to delve for herself, she was hedged on the hither side and the far by cloudy dreams, elusive and baffling as seems indeed the case with all seers who serve the world with truth faithfully but who, when they would press it to their personal service, are mocked by vain illusions. ridgley school with its white buildings set comfortably among the maples and the oaks that crown the flat top of the hill a mile to the west of the village of hamilton attracts and holds the attention of all eyes that fall upon it partly perhaps because the dormitories and the recreation halls fit into the landscape and do not jut boldly and crudely above the trees as so many buildings on hilltops do there is an air of hominess and informality about the place which new visitors generally notice and mention to doctor wells its head but it is one thing to ride up to ridgley school in an automobile from the hamilton station with half a dozen other new ridgleyites some of whom have already become your friends and to get your first view of the campus while cheerful voices are sounding in your ears and quite another thing to walk up the long winding road from the village alone and to wonder as you come nearer and nearer to those neat white buildings whether you will succeed in making any friends at all among the fellows who have come up in the automobiles under those conditions ridgley school might seem cold and austere and full of unpleasant possibilities
