the subject also sets his text apart an introduction to islam places islam within a cultural political social and religious context and examines its connections with judeo christian morals its integration of the doctrinal and devotional elements of islam enables readers to see how muslims think and live engendering understanding and breaking down stereotypes this text also reviews pre islamic history so readers can see how islam developed historically there has been a great demand for a booklet to introduce younger people to the teachings of islam in fairly simple language the ahmadiyya anjuman isha at islam lahore has over the past decades produced a range of excellent works dealing with all aspects of islam this literature has been widely appreciated and acclaimed as meeting the needs of the present times both for teaching muslims and for presenting islam to the world generally it has been felt for sometime that the wonderful knowledge contained in these comprehensive works must be made more readily accessible to younger people by presenting it at an introductory level in simpler language this booklet has therefore been prepared to satisfy these requirements all the basic doctrines and practices of islam have been covered supplemented by information about the holy quran hadith and the moral teachings of islam no prior knowledge is assumed the question answer format used it is hoped will make the booklet more interesting than would be the case with a descriptive approach there are abundant direct quotations from the holy quran throughout with full references in some places the teachings of islam are elaborated in general words without direct quotations or specific references as this was not considered necessary in those cases in an introductory booklet of this kind for further reading on any point or fuller explanation the writings of maulana muhammad ali should be consulted in any case as younger readers advance in their knowledge they would be expected to move on to these standard books this brief introduction to islam is designed to help readers understand this important religious tradition with both nuance and balance this text provides broad coverage of various forms of islam with an arresting layout with rich colors it offers both historical overviews and modern perspectives on islamic beliefs and practices the user friendly content is enhanced by charts of religious festivals historic timelines updated maps and a useful glossary it is ideal for courses on islam and will be a useful concise reference for all readers eager to know more about this important religious tradition and its place in our contemporary world the book description for the previously published introduction to islamic theology and law is not yet available this book introduces islam through a humanistic lens by highlighting the affective traditions and expressions associated with sufism and shi ism while most introductory books emphasize the shari a and especially the five pillars as the primary defining characteristic of islam vernon james schubel provides an alternative introduction which instead underscores the importance of humanity and the human being within islamic thought and practice the book stresses the diversity of islamic beliefs and practices presenting them as varied responses to the shared multivalent concepts of tawhid the unity of god nubuwwa prophecy and qiyama the day of judgment readers are introduced to essential aspects of islam including the life of the prophet muhammad the qur an the development of the shari a and the emergence of the sunni shi a and sufi traditions the book concludes with a call to redefine mainstream islam as a religious tradition focused on the centrality of love and rooted in the importance of humanity and universal human virtues an introductory text describing the basic tenets of the islamic faith carole hillenbrand long acknowledged as a preeminent authority on islam has now written a superb introduction to this great world religion a book that promises to be the most lucid nuanced text of its kind on the market beginning with the life of muhammad hillenbrand firmly establishes in historical and global context the beliefs and ideals of muslims and the branches and movements within the faith rather than portraying islam as a monolithic entity hillenbrand emphasizes its diversity and variety featured chapters include but are not limited to law diversity sufism jihad and women finally a concluding chapter on islam in the globalized twenty first century is bound to appeal to instructors and students alike feature the full text of an introduction to islam a book written by m cherif bassiouni and published online by the middle east institute in washington d c recounts the history of islam describes islamic religious beliefs law the social and moral systems and economic aspects the primary purpose of this book says the author is to enable non muslims to understand islam more easily and to help foster friendly relations between muslims and non muslims this book while academically sound is written for the general public and aims to make the islamic reality more accessible to them by presenting islam imaginatively from a muslim perspective this book was first published in the sixties since when it has been reprinted several times in every edition there has been an initial chapter outlining the background to the book where in shaikh tantawi explained the reasons for his writing the book and the circumstances under which it was first published in this the tenth edition we give a more detailed summary than in earlier editions shaikh tantawi grew up in syria at the beginning of this century he always expresses great admiration and gratitude to his father shaikh mustafa tantawi who was a leading faqih jurist in his country according to shaikhtantawi people in those days were either shaikhs scholars of islam or effendis arabs who had received a secular education the shaikhs were uninformed about the modern sciences of the effendis whereas the effendis were ignorant of religion fortunately for shaikh tantawi he was among the few to receive both types of some years ago shaikh tantawi wrote a book entitled religious reform wherein he discussed the need for religion and referred to the mooted question of whether man can live without religion according to shaikh tantawi such questions can only be answered by counter questions such as whether it is possible for man to lead a material life casting off all his inner emotions of love and admiration of nature and her beauty in this context the author also discussed the values of western philosophers and thinkers such as kant newton pascal and goethe to disprove the statement made by some of them that the universe was created by accident the author gave the following example if we were to place five balls four white and one red in a bag

the probability of taking out the red ball the first time would be one in five similarly if there were nine white balls the ratio would be one in ten but if one were to place an unlimited number of balls in the bag the probability of picking out the red ball would be one to an unlimited number therefore we cannot say that the red ball could be picked at the first or even the hundredth attempt so how could the planets that orbit on a set course without colliding with one another have come into existence by accident therefore there must be a divine power behind them in 1936 shaikh tantawi went to work as a secondary school teacher in iraq and he was assigned to the teaching of arabic literature and religion it was during this time that he felt the need for a simple and comprehensive book on islam he decided to campaign for this idea and wrote many articles urging the ulema to compile such a book but no one responded many years passed meanwhile other scholars who like the author were also well read in religious and secular studies had decided to write books on islam while many of these were excellent a simple and comprehensive book on islam had still not been published in 1966 the author wrote an article called a general introduction to islam it was published in the journal of the muslim world league at mecca and caught the attention of a minister in the saudi arabian government mr muhammad umar tafiq he immediately advised the muslim world league to commission the services of shaikh tantawi to write this book the straight path an introduction to islam is a clear and easy to read overview of islam's core values beliefs and traditions the history of islam the quran and the core principles of the faith are all covered in depth in this book the five pillars of islam faith prayer charity fasting and pilgrimage are thoroughly examined giving readers a clear understanding of the key rituals that constitute islam whether you are new to islam or are interested in its teachings more deeply this book is a great resource for anyone who wants to learn more about it the straight path offers readers an understanding of islam by emphasizing its fundamentals and the customs that make it real the reader will find it simple to comprehend the complex ideas and islamic beliefs thanks to this book's straightforward and succinct writing it addresses significant issues like the prophet muhammad's role in islam the idea of god's unity and the quran's importance this book also offers a distinctive view of the islamic way of life demonstrating how islam influences muslims worldwide in their day to day lives and highlighting the significance of community and compassion in the faith the straight path also provides helpful guidance for people seeking to apply islamic principles to their own lives laying the foundation for a deeper comprehension of islam and its influence on the global community this wide ranging account of the history and theology of one of the world's most dynamic religions tells the story of islamic beliefs and practices as they developed from the earliest times down to the present day for this revised and updated second edition david waines has added a long section tackling head on the issues arising from islam's place in the changing world order at the turn of the new millennium the wars in bosnia afghanistan and israel and the terrorist attacks on new york and washington have raised global awareness of islam at a superficial level but little has been written which considers islamic political and military extremism in relation to mainstream muslim history and theology coming at the end of a book which has explored the ideas and traditions of islam in depth this new section offers thought provoking reflections on the place of religion in the current conflicts this groundbreaking book developed with a grant from the harriet and robert heilbrunn institute for interreligious understanding of the american jewish committee is a stepping stone to dialogue descended from a common ancestor jews and muslims share a special relationship and practice religions that exhibit remarkable moral and theological resemblance but most jews know little about islam professor khalid duran presents the majesty of islam its history and culture but neither ignores nor rationalizes its more problematic aspects his book offers an insightful and forthright treatment of the varieties of muslim fundamentalism islamism and jihadism it offers a candid analysis of the status of women in muslim belief and practice as well as an unsentimental assessment of the historical treatment of minorities in islamic societies a publication of the harriet and robert heilbrunn institute for international interreligious understanding of the american jewish committee this book is one of the many islamic publications distributed by mustafa organization throughout the world in different languages with the aim of conveying the message of islam to the people of the world mustafa organization is a registered organization that operates and is sustained through collaborative efforts of volunteers in many countries around the world and it welcomes your involvement and support its objectives are numerous yet its main goal is to spread the truth about the islamic faith in general and the shi'a school of thought in particular due to the latter being misrepresented misunderstood and its tenets often assaulted by many ignorant folks muslims and non muslims organization's purpose is to facilitate the dissemination of knowledge through a global medium the internet to locations where such resources are not commonly or easily accessible or are resented resisted and fought rather than focus solely on theological concerns this well rounded introduction takes an expansive view of islamic ideology culture and tradition sourcing a range of historical sociological and literary perspectives neither overly critical nor apologetic this book reflects the rich diversity of muslim identities across the centuries and counters the unflattering superficial portrayals of islam that are shaping public discourse today aaron w hughes uniquely traces the development of islam in relation to historical intellectual and cultural influences enriching his narrative with the findings debates and methodologies of related disciplines such as archaeology history and near eastern studies hughes s work challenges the dominance of traditional terms and concepts in religious studies recasting religion as a set of social and cultural facts imagined manipulated and contested by various actors and groups over time making extensive use of contemporary identity theory hughes rethinks the teaching of islam and religions in general and helps facilitate a more critical approach to muslim sources for readers seeking a non theological unbiased and richly human portrait of islam as well as a strong grasp of islamic study s major issues and debates this textbook is a productive progressive alternative to more classic surveys based on a successful series of adult education programmes broadcast on canadian radio organised by members of the department of islamic studies at the university of toronto p 4 of cover in malawi where islam arrived before christianity a substantial minority of the population are muslims and in some areas they form the majority many people in one major ethnic group the yao have an especially close association with the religion in cities and many areas of the country the distinctive presence of islam can be seen in the form of mosques ways of dressing customs and festivals muslims have provided malawi with a state president and vice president cabinet ministers and ambassadors as well as leading figures in commerce the professions and the security services this book aims to contribute to knowledge and understanding in three main ways and falls into three 19 sections first and foremost it offers a concise introduction to the foundations on which the religion of islam is based it then goes on to describe the expansion and development of the islamic community and account for some of the sources of the rich diversity that is found among muslims some of this diversity comes from the very different cultures in which islam has found a place and some of it comes also from different interpretations of the foundations of the religion itself the book concludes with an outline of how islam has come to africa and to malawi in particular and how it has found expression in the lives of muslims there helping jews understand islam a reasoned and candid view exploring complex relations between muslim visions and critical stances this textbook is a compact introduction to islam dealing with the origins of its forms from early developments to contemporary issues including religious principles beliefs and practices the author s innovative method considers the various opposing theories and approaches between the islamic tradition and scholars of islam each topic is accompanied by up to date bibliographical references and a list of titles for further study while an exhaustive glossary includes the elementary notions to allow in depth study part i outlines the two founding aspects the qur an and prophet muhammad highlighting essential concepts according to islamic religious discourse and related critical issues in part ii the emergence of the religious themes that have characterised the formation of islam are explored in terms of historical developments part iii on contemporary islam examines the growth of islam between the end of the middle ages and the beginning of the modern age advanced readers already familiar with the elementary notions of islam and religious studies will benefit from islam that explores the development of religious discourse in a historical perspective this unique textbook is a key resource for post graduate researchers and academics interested in islam religion and the middle east this is a new release of the original 1924 edition this book features
