collection a yearbook for anyone who finds lists irresistible every day of the year has a separate page and includes two famous people one who was born on that date and one who passed away many introductory texts claim to make sociology relevant to student interests perhaps no other text has done this so completely and engagingly as connecting sociology to our lives tim delaney not only uses popular and contemporary culture examples he explains sociology thoroughly within the frame of the contemporary culture of students a culture shaped by political economic and environmental trends just as much as by today's pop stars this book will help academics to engage their students in sociology through the prism of their own culture it involves students in critical thinking and classroom discussion through the book's many what do you think inserts and will inspire them to careers with the book's unique chapter sociology's place in society completing the connection steve burgess is one of the uk's leading hypnotherapists who has completed many thousands of past life regressions this intriguing book is the story of some of his clients who in regression sessions appear to have been very famous historical characters in their previous lives these famous past lives include queen elizabeth i her elder sister queen mary one of jack the ripper's prostitute victims titus oates from the scott of the antarctic expedition and william shakespeare whilst in trance steve's clients give fascinating accounts of their past life alter egos often experiencing things known only to historians as they re-live their famous past lives they even provide unknown information which gives us a fuller insight into the lives of the famous characters including elizabeth's passionate affair with robert dudley and the fate of their love child and shakespeare's travels abroad this book may be the book that proves the reality of reincarnation and will be of interest to both sceptics and spiritually minded people ever wondered how paul walker rose to stardom born on september 12 1973 in glendale california as paul william walker iv he grew up in san fernando valley area of la county paul's human emotions as well as the enduring power of love throughout history this edition of famous affinities of history vol 1 is both modern and legible with a fresh cover and professionally typeset manuscript the editors have brought together a range of eminent contributors who present a range of issues throughout the life cycle the book asserts that it hopes to assist readers to anticipate change and discontinuity in people's lives and think about strategies to support them through the many challenges that they may face in their lives in my view this book certainly does that and the editors and contributors are to be congratulated on the production of a relevant and contemporary text that i have no hesitation in both endorsing and recommending to all involved in supporting and or caring for people with learning disabilities professor bob gates project leader learning disabilities workforce development nhs education south central uk the editors have gathered an authoritative faculty to present and discuss a range of contemporary issues both practical and ethical the text is well grounded in the lived experience of people with disability and draws on the evidence base of contemporary science each chapter includes thought provoking exercises this is a seminal text for students and practitioners researchers and policy makers associate professor keith r mcvilley deakin university australia i currently own a copy of the first edition and it has proved an invaluable resource time and time again there is not an essay i complete that does not make reference to the book and i can consistently use it to reflect back on my practice as a student nurse and social worker having read several extracts from the new edition it does appear to include very high quality content covering learning disabilities over the lifespan if i were to personally recommend any book for budding or current learning disability professionals then this would be it james grainger student nurse social worker sheffield hallam university uk i like the way it has primary and secondary information from a range of sources the exercises in the book also get you to think about the situation in question which helps us think about our values and anti oppressive practice this book really does start with the basics and having a learning disability from birth and the effects to in depth knowledge and literature this book would be very helpful to me as it brings in literature policies and models from both a health and social side which is important for my course and collaborative working laura jean lowe student nurse sheffield hallam university uk it is written with a clearly conveyed in depth knowledge and in a way that has professional lived experience within the context of the work the authors have taken into account the emotional client centred approach to the modern practitioner s practice the book gives a true wealth of good practice scenarios that can only help practitioners be good at what they do and aspire to be lee marshall student nurse sheffield hallam university uk with its spread of chapters covering key issues across the life cycle this text has established itself as the foundational primer for those studying the lived experiences of people with learning disabilities and their families and outcomes achieved through services and support systems recognising learning disability as a lifelong disability this accessible book is structured around the life cycle the second edition is refreshed and expanded to include seven new chapters covering aetiology breaking news about disability and early intervention transition to adulthood the sexual lives of women employment personalisation people with hidden identities with contributions from respected figures from a range of disciplines the book draws heavily upon multidisciplinary perspectives and is based on the latest research and evidence for practice the text is informed by medical social and legal models of learning disability exploring how learning disability is produced reproduced and understood extensive use is made of real life case studies designed to bring theory values policy and practice to life narrative chapters describe in the words of people with learning disabilities themselves their lives and aspirations they helpfully show readers the kinds of roles played by families advocates and services in supporting people with learning disabilities new exercises and questions have been added to encourage discussion and reflection on practice learning disability is core reading for students entering health and social care professions to work with people with learning disabilities it is a compelling reference text for practitioners as it squarely addresses the challenges facing people with learning fame seeking like his many attempts and failures to get onto mtv packed with playful diagrams fascinating insights from celebrities and embarrassing truths from josh s experience with semi fame this is a must read for anyone who has ever dreamed of becoming famous or at least going viral on tiktok having been mentored by viktor e frankl the founder of logotherapy emeritus professor david guttmann authored this book so general readers may understand this approach to finding meaning in life at the point when most of us begin deeply wondering over that question at midlife and beyond especially in this day and age of multiple demands on our time and seemingly non stop obligations we too often find that it is only when the dust settles after a work day or work week or even after retirement when we begin to wonder what is the meaning of life the purpose this book is a new millennium venture into those questions and their answers using logotherapy written by a sage understudy who recalls frankl with his logotherapy as the epitome of his theory even at 80 years old wise and witty exuding an energy enthusiasm and youthful spirit that belied his years by decades aging does not diminish our power our energy and our quest for life but reshapes it with new understandings goals and needs but says guttmann we live in a technical and machine based world now in which there is a danger of losing our souls here readers find a new creative perspective on aging and a fresh spiritual outlook this book will be of interest not only to general readers especially those at midlife and beyond but also to their families friends and students or professionals in the helping professions this unique work provides knowledge to find meaning in life derived from the fields of philosophy psychology religion and gerontology with case illustrations and vignettes to give readers both intellectual pleasure and practical guidance this essay is from schopenhauer final work parerga und paralipomena published in 1851 from this article readers could see that this philosopher prefers the power of personal will and independent and rational deliberations rather than the tendency to act on irrational impulses he studied how to arrange life to achieve the highest degree of happiness and success an a level text following on from introducing mechanics by the same authors the two books cover all the requirements for mechanics as part of a double certificate mathematics for any examination board a clear text is supported by worked examples exercises and examination questions famous inspirational words to bring happiness to your soul is written to give you a glimpse of some of the beautiful pictures from tia land complimented with the most powerful secret phrases written traced back through history when i first began to do the research for this book i could not believe all the people who knew of these famous secret words they were the greatest people in history over time i put together a
