this is a book of fiction and a book of fact the combination of which brings us to a book of truth it is well known that facts alone can deceive one pretending to be the truths you will not find truth in history books only information only in books that contain both facts and flights of imagination that follow from feelings that are born of facts will you find truths lies that swirl around tiny testimonials bring those testimonials to life to truth being alive is the only way truth can exist truth resides in both our minds and hearts a new truth can only be fashioned by a person who has been exposed to an original truth i hope you form your own new truths while reading this book as for the picture above once upon a time the exterior and interior were true now the exterior is a lie while the interior remains true
