Riddle of the Nile 2006 the best story of adventure published in the last quarter of a century John Buchan the perennial classic arguably the first spy novel ever written remains one of the finest examples of the genre to this day while on a duck hunting holiday sailing in the Frisian Isles Carruthers and his friend Davies become suspicious of German naval activity off the North Sea coast the pair decide to investigate and are soon embroiled in a world of suspense and intrigue and the pair set about foiling nothing less than a plot to invade England initially published in 1903 the Riddle of the Sands proved a prescient vision of the Anglo-German conflict that was to culminate in the First World War this thrilling adventure is now regarded as the first and one of the best spy novels ever written inspiring later masters of the genre from John Buchan to John Le Carré

The Riddle of the Irish 1970 the following collection of essays could have had as a subtitle towards a new sophiology apart from the final essay Valentin Tomberg and Dostoevski all the other essays appeared in this same order as articles in the Starlight Journal of the Sophia Foundation of North America over the years 2014 2019 the production of these articles took place during the period that immediately followed the publication of O Meara s book The Way of Novalis and should be seen as an outgrowth from the Sophianic direction of that book in these essays slightly expanded from the articles O Meara elaborates on the Sophianic mission of the foundation with reference to the main master individualities to whom the foundation has linked itself notably Rudolf Steiner Valentin Tomberg Novalis Friedrich von Hardenberg as well as the master Peter

deunov however other well known individuals are also considered in some depth including vladimir solovyov pavel florensky sergius bulgakov fyodor dostoevski carl jung as well as some of the master artists of the renaissance most notably michelangelo and da vinci estelle isaacson and ita wegman also assume a significant role in this collection

The Riddle of the Image 2014-03-15 this book explores the bizarre but fascinating world of infinity in different disciplines of knowledge mathematics science philosophy and religion it projects the views of eastern as well as western scholars this world is not only mysterious but also treacherous and conceals many conundrums such as a multitude of infinities the mystic s experience of the infinite conception of god as absolute infinity the author also discusses many paradoxes relating to space and time it is interesting to discover that some eastern philosophies try to reconcile two opposite concepts of sunya zero and ananta the infinite the author also ventures to address a difficult question does infinity exist as a physical reality

The Riddle of the Lustr sapphires 2012-08-07 spinster sleuth hildegard withers and inspector oscar piper are on the case of murder among the dog breeders in a case reminiscent of s s van dine s the kennel murder case 1933

The Riddle of the Early Academy 2019 this book aims to clarify the relationship between the mind and matter and refutes the two commonly held misconceptions first the belief that material energy cannot be guided or controlled despite being constant in quantity because of the transformations and transfers that occur on earth and second the idea that life as a specific guiding power is simply one form of material energy and that when it separates from matter it will be replaced by other forms of energy the book also serves as a counterargument to the speculative and destructive aspects of professor haeckel s popular book however it can be seen as a supplement rather than a criticism as it expands upon the scientific elements of professor haeckel s work and delves into more productive areas of inquiry

The Riddle of the Infinite or Ananta 2013-05-01 a distinctive feature of mystical experience is that it is imageless mystics of various traditions witness indeed to their going beyond all intermediaries so as to enjoy immediate union understandably the idea of imageless immediacy is attractive and it is especially in vogue with those who hope to discover that different religious spiritualities converge if only the particularity of say the christian way would be left behind however a crucial question arises here if mystical union consists in simply transcending what is part and parcel of the human condition where is its relevance is the mystic as such in a position to be his or her human self thinking and loving enjoying and suffering can he or she be active in the world of humankind obviously it is especially in the christian tradition that this matter comes to the fore as a radical difficulty for here there is the divine image and mediator so much so that the humanity of jesus ought to be integral to a person's union with god perhaps the christian mystic is such an extraordinary figure that the humanity and all other images and intermediaries are for him or her at best a stepping stone that is bound to disappear the riddle of christian mystical experience aims to clarify this issue by analyzing the writings of such visionaries as julian of norwich teresa of avila and maria petyt of the ecstasy minded masters richard of saint victor bernard of clairvaux and bonaventure describing francis of assisi's experience of the cream of the flemish mystics namely hadewijch and jan van ruusbroec nevertheless the preference for the mystical text does not prevent the riddle from drawing on the insights of modern philosophers such as jean paul sartre and jean luc marion when treating of images and idols or michael polanyi and ludwig wittgenstein when reflecting on intermediaries the main result of this procedure may come as a surprise far from turning into a detached creature who forgets about the humanity and the human the full fledged mystic is as a flemish mystic puts it wholly in god where he rests in enjoyment and wholly in himself where he loves with works experiencing union with intermediary and without intermediary the true christian mystic is unimaged as well as imaged upon the humanity of our lord through heartfelt affection

Hildegard Withers in The Riddle of the Blueblood Murders 2019-12-17 the riddle of the night

Life and Matter: A Criticism of Professor Haeckel's "Riddle of the Universe" 2003 excerpt from the riddle of the night it was half past eleven on the night of wednesday april 14th when the well known red limousine of mr maverick narkom superintendent of scotland yard came abruptly to the head of mulberry lane which as you may possibly know is a narrow road skirting one of the loneliest and wildest portions of wimbledon common lennard the chauffeur put on the brake with such suddenness that the car seemed actually to rise from the earth performed a sort of buzzing and snorting semicircle and all but collided with the rear wall of wuthering grange before coming to a halt in the narrow road space which lay between that wall and the tree fringed edge of the great common under ordinary circumstances one might as soon have expected to run foul of a specimen of the great auk rearing a family in st paul's churchyard as to find mr narkom's limousine in the neighbourhood of mulberry lane at any hour of the day or the night throughout the whole cycle of the year about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
