the alarmingly low health status of millions of people in many developing countries is now recognised as a major obstacle to the process of development in response increasing numbers of non governmental organizations are championing the right to health of the disadvantaged vulnerable and those living in poverty written in a simple and direct style useful for training administrators of small groups or associations and those who manage development projects volume 2 of this guide covers all aspects of financing an association the second volume looks at all aspects of financial management for small development ngos and associations financing an association and its activities is considered first including non financial resources fundraising and local financing it suggests credit and savings as a way to reduce dependency on donors it continues with how to organise savings and credit systems and how to manage money with accounting systems budgets and cash flows financial management of small projects accounting systems and profit and loss accounts are considered in more detail case studies and sample forms are given at the back as in the first volume the index aims to guide readers to the section they want using keywords a glossary explains all the financial terms used the book would be useful to small organisations with little experience of financial management or as a training resource it is also a good introduction to some alternatives to donor funding the manual provides for a step by step introduction and expert advice for representatives of ngos and other stakeholders on how they can effectively engage in developing and implementing multilateral environment agreements this comprehensive approach to gender training in development encompasses work on gender awareness raising and gender analysis at the individual community and global level an important reference source for development agency trainers and academics draws on the experience of bulgaria to study the problems encountered in financing government operations in the transition economies this report describes bulgaria s experience in addressing external shocks to its economy and large declines in the ratio of tax revenues to gdp the book provides broad coverage of the problems many other governments face in transforming their systems of taxation in the transition to a market economy chapters discuss taxation and incentives government and households indirect taxation and financing of social expenditures attention is also drawn to the implementation of a value added tax and to policies on fuel taxes the report facilitates an understanding of the differences between actual and optimal policies as governments seek to establish a framework for resolving their budgetary problems in the transition the aim of the council of europe s youth policy is to provide young people girls and boys young women and young men with equal opportunities and experience which will enable them to develop the knowledge skills and competencies to play a full part in all aspects of society the programme of activities aims at associating young people through governmental and non governmental youth partners with the aims and priorities of the youth policy of the council of europe the participants in the education and training activities are multipliers who within their youth organisations or institutions are involved in training other young people and or in designing activities and programmes that put into practice the values standards and objectives that preside over the youth policy of the council of europe the use of non formal learning principles is combined with experiential learning approaches the most apt at making the learning experiences meaningful and relevant activities are implemented in accordance with quality standards agreed with partners of and participants in the activities the quality of these activities depends to a large extent on the competences and abilities of the facilitators of these educational processes many of whom are volunteers within youth and community organisations this manual was developed in order to support them in that role particularly when they are part of the educational teams of study sessions at the european youth centre the manual provides essential information and practical tips for all who are involved in planning and delivering non formal education intercultural activities on an occasional basis this manual is part of the endeavour of the council of europe s youth sector to support and develop the quality of non formal education activities across europe and in doing so contribute to further their recognition aimed at non government organizations and others trying to assist people in starting their own businesses on however small a scale this manual provides detailed guidelines for an 11 day training course topics covered include marketing financial management group enterprises credit and governingcouncil in 2002 while this manual is not a negotiated document it also is the result of a collaborative process involving a wide range of numerous individuals around the world these people assisted in drafting case studies and other contributions reviewing the text and suggesting substantive and formatting changes the eu coe youth partnership stems from the close relations that the council of europe and the european commission have developed in the youth field over the years since 1998 the overall goal is to foster synergies between the youth oriented activities of the two institutions the specific themes are participation citizenship social inclusion recognition and quality of youth work what is youth policy and what major elements should a national youth policy strategy include how can young people be consulted and otherwise involved in developing youth policy how do institutions such as the european union the council of europe and the united nations address youth policy and how can this work be concretely linked to the efforts of a national government to develop a youth policy agenda how is youth policy organised in specific countries of the middle east and north africa mena region these are some of the essential questions addressed in this publication the youth policy manual should be considered a source work a tool and a helpful guide both for policy makers in the youth field and for non governmental organisations and other stakeholder groups who advocate improved youth policy at the national level this manual proposes one possible model for how a national youth policy strategy can be developed it is a revised version of the youth policy manual 2009 and takes into account relevant specificities of the mena region this deft and thorough update ensures that the wildlife techniques manual will remain an indispensable resource one that professionals and students in wildlife biology conservation and management simply cannot do
