the word christian is found but three times in all the scriptures the places where it occurs are acts 11 26 acts 26 28 and 1 peter 4 16 these read as follows and the disciples were called christians first at antioch then agrippa said unto paul you almost persuade me to be a christian yet if any man suffers as a christian let him not be ashamed but let him glorify god on this behalf the chronology of some of the events recorded in the acts is not entirely certain but it seems pretty clear that the followers of our lord were not called christians until ten or twelve years after our savior s ascension to heaven the christian is a delightful and encouraging work describing twenty seven facets of the christian experience altogether it is an excellent succinct presentation on what it means to be a christian this treatise could serve the believer well as a daily devotional as well as an evangelistic tool to explain the experiential life of a christian to the inquiring unbeliever joel beeke

The Christian

is the christian faith something that can peacefully exist alongside all the other aspects of an ordinary human life or does it by its very nature turn that life into something else the author of this book a member of a monastic community for over forty years obviously has a vested interest in the answer but even for believers caught up in the day to day life of society work and family the question is an important one at least if they are seeking a measure of consistency in the life they are living and does not the very fact that the question of the importance and urgency of faith needs to be asked witness to the eclipse of an eschatological outlook among christians at any rate in the mainstream churches could this oversight not explain why an eschatological understanding of faith one which sees it as a radical world changing reality has been forced to take refuge often deformed to the point of being unrecognizable in small fanatical groups on the margins of the christian world
