Iqbal and the English Romantics 1988 bringing together islamic studies a postcolonial literary perspective and a focus on the interaction between aesthetics and politics this book analyses iqbal s islamism through his poetry it argues that his notion of an islamist selfhood was expressed in his verse through the interplay between poetic tradition and creative innovation it also considers how iqbal expressed an islamist geopolitical imagination in his work and examines his exploration of the relationship between the modern west and a reconstructed islam for the first time iqbal s personal letters have been drawn upon to provide an insight into his inner conflicts as articulated in his poetry concentrating on the complexity of his work in its own right the book eschews the standard appropriation of iqbal into any one political agenda be it indian nationalism muslim separatism or iranian islamic republicanism with its analytical and in depth reading of iqbal s verse and prose this book opens a fresh perspective on islam and postcolonialism it will be a fascinating study for general readers and readers with interests in the intellectual and political history of modern south asia colonialism and postcolonialism islamic studies and modern south asian literature especially urdu and persian poetry

this book reflects upon the political philosophy of muhammad iqbal a towering intellectual figure in south asian history revered by many for his poetry and his thought he lived in india in the twilight years of the british empire and apart from a short but significant period studying in the west he remained in punjab until his death in 1938 the book studies iqbal s critique of nationalist ideology and his attempts to chart a path for the development of the nation by liberating it from the centralizing and homogenizing tendencies of the modern state structure iqbal frequently clashed with his contemporaries over his view of nationalism as the greatest enemy of islam he constructed his own particular interpretation of islam forged through an interaction with muslim thinkers and western intellectual traditions that was ahead of its time and since his death both modernists and islamists have continued to champion his legacy

Educational Philosophy of Iqbal 2020-10-30

this book was written by a hindu the grandson of mohandas k gandhi his intent in writing on eight muslims and their influence on india in the twentieth century is to reduce the gulf between hindu and muslims focusing on figures viewed as heroes by sub continent muslims he shows that they can be admired by hindus as well that they need not be frozen in hindu minds as foes here is a fascinating account of twentieth century india pakistan and bangladesh told through biographical sketches of eight men sayyid ahmed khan 1817 1898 fazlul huq 1873 1962 muhammad ali jinnah 1876 1948 muhammad iqbal 1876 1938 muhammad ali 1878 1931 abul kalam azad 1888 1958 liaqat ali khan 1895 1951 and zakir husain 1897 1969

for most urdu speakers in the indian subcontinent iqbal has long been one of the most loved and admired poets much has been written about his poetry and philosophy this book stays away from his politics iqbal first received recognition in the west in 1920 when his translation of asrar e khudi by r a nicholson the secrets of the self first appeared most of the recurring criticism was on his concept of khudi which iqbal addressed then and later explaining the basic nature of influence of much older sufi philosophy on khudi versus nietzsche's Übermensch several authors both from the subcontinent and the west have translated iqbal's poetry before and in this book have highlighted the positive outcomes over some controversies and confusion this book presents translation of well over 150 of iqbal's urdu poems from kuliyaath e iqbal and about 30 or so from payam e mashriq pm in persian iqbal offered pm as a response to goethe's west-östlicher diwan in german goethe had long been interested in eastern rather middle eastern culture and his diwan was inspired by the fourteenth century persian poet hafez hafiz hafis which also involved some literary traverse through a different religious philosophical territory translation from urdu or persian to english across a vast cultural prosodic and linguistic gulf presents enormous problems section on translation discusses some of these issues although iqbal's philosophy has been covered from by many others before some of iqbal's own explanation of khudi in a larger historical sufi context are discussed here in addition iqbal's own contribution to what goethe called weltliteratur or world literature is recognized in pm mostly and elsewhere in his urdu kuliyaath iqbal not just brought various western themes and figures to urdu literature but presented them with his own comments and interpretation to a readership that may have been largely unfamiliar with these western themes the appendices include important recognition iqbal received in germany

even as a little kid the author harbored visions of becoming a writer or perhaps a gym teacher those dreams were deemed insufficiently ambitious to his parents who had experienced the great depression firsthand they gave all three of their children the best education money could buy over two centuries ago the poet william wordsworth my heart leaps up wrote the child is father of the man for the author of this memoir studying the poets of the romantic era of english literature was the highlight of all his many years of schooling and the dreams of the child never were completely snuffed out through the twists and turns of a young man becoming an adult the author became subject to the draft lottery instituted to insure the country had an adequate supply of men to fight the north vietnamese however before his number ever came up he found himself in a hospital bed after a week of unconsciousness in the intensive care ward he had been in a devastating car accident a head on collision that killed both driver and passenger of the car that hit him his injuries turned out to be mostly physical despite the ominous warning from his neurological surgeon he missed a year to operations physical therapy and relearning to walk but he walked away stronger in body mind and spirit while this book is no misery memoir it does in subtle tones remind the reader that we all are subject to things over which we have no control seeing life through the prism of paralysis as he did the author long ago adopted an attitude of gratitude and acceptance buoyed by an indomitable sense of humor and indefatigable spirit through the years he has remained up when many around him are down the informal yet chronological setting of the book will bring you along for many of the voyages the author took in the fifteen or so years after the accident but leaves you at the end quite literally up in the air as he ponders what life has in store for him next whether the author is travelling by backpack or hunkered down in office suites in manhattan his optimistic point of view continues to carry him through both loss and recovery through reinvention and rediscovery

Indian English Literature 1994

muhammad iqbal d 1938 was one of the most influential modernist islamic thinkers of the early twentieth century his work as a poet politician philosopher and public intellectual was widely recognized in his lifetime and plays a major role in contemporary conversations about islam modernity and tradition god science and self examines the patterns of reasoning at work in iqbal s philosophic magnum opus arguably the most significant text of modernist islamic philosophy the reconstruction of religious thought in islam since its initial publication in 1934 the reconstruction has left scholars in a quandary its themes appear eclectic and its arguments contradictory and philosophically perplexing in this groundbreaking study nauman faizi argues that the keys to demystifying the contradictions of the reconstruction are two competing epistemologies at play within the work iqbal takes knowledge to be descriptive essential foundational and binary but he also takes knowledge to be performative contextual probabilistic and vague faizi demonstrates how these approaches to knowledge shape iqbal s claims about personhood god scripture philosophy and science god science and self offers an original approach to interpreting islamic thought as it crafts relationships between scriptural texts philosophic thought and scientific claims for modern muslim subjects
