a great novelist a learned and wise critic and a charming short story writer can these three reside in a single person yes but of course in a very few and e m forster is certainly one of those very few and that he is par excellence any knowledge of modern english novel without even an acquaintance with forster is absurdly incomplete all of forster s six novels perhaps barring only maurice have been and are being printed and re printed in hundreds of thousands of copies and all the six but perhaps the longest journey have been filmed by worthy directors such as lean and merchant and the films have received and are receiving high and spontaneous acclamations as said forster is also an outstanding critic and will go a long way down the history of criticism as much as he will be remembered as a highly fantastic but excellent short story writer for a long time to come as he is today this compendium like book split into three volumes contains discussions on all the six novels of forster where angles fear to tread the longest journey a room with a view howards end maurice and a passage to india besides the study includes his twelve prime short stories and his critical acumen and theories it does not harbour no it carefully avoids any pretension or pedantry but it comprises almost all the matters relevant to forsteriana plainly but rather expatiatingly treated so that it is expected to help yeoman like certainly not the avant garde but the sophomores an in depth study of forster as a novelist and as a critic provided herein adds to the value of the book furthermore quotations included in the appendix bibliography and index would serve as useful study aids for the readers in howards end forster remarks that the imperialist hopes to inherit the earth and with the strong temptation he has to acclaim it as a supereyeman who carries his country s virtue overseas he then adds but the imperialist is not what he thinks or seems he is a destroyer he prepares the way for cosmopolitanism and though his ambitions may be fulfilled the earth that he inherits will be grey this simple notion is masterly expressed in a passage to india which provides a rich diversity of historical contexts and implies political imperatives urging us to rethink the complex relationship between east and west not as simple confrontation but rather as deeply rooted in cultural differences far beyond the realm of imperialist sensibility with the support of material by forster published here for the first time this volume explores the realm of forster s politics and imperialism

The Twentieth Century

in the study of e m forster s enigmatic fiction the author has attempted a profile of this modern janus the essence of whose personality inheres in the subtlety of the hints he drops and the glimpses he affords into the dark recesses of the minds involved in a mysterious universe the elusiveness of his work produces an art which though concrete and tangible is punctuated by reticences interspersed with hesitations qualifications and suggestions pregnant with deep meanings like the melodious stirrings of music the book is primarily based on the author s doctoral dissertation ethics and aesthetics in the novels of e m forster according to dr singh the categories in which forster ranges people are primarily ethical the pattern he imposes on experience is the pattern of his ethical vision this vision is fresh and independent affair its tone is inquiring not dogmatic his analysis shows that the aesthetic pleasure that forster s novels communicate depends mainly on his gifts of characterization his mastery of dialogue his delicately poised irony his flexible prose and his ingenuity in unfolding themes so that each novel has a meaning that transcends the sum of its parts the book enables us to understand e m forster by placing him in relation to the thoughts of some of the leading thinkers of 20th century and the socio political milieu its daring adventures its narrow prejudices its peculiar social norms which determined the scope of his work his approach is refreshingly original and he makes quite perceptive comments on the complexity of forster s art in comparison with henry james d h lawrence joseph conrad george orwell and andre gide as also on his craftsmanship as a novelist
