andy sommerville seems no different than others in his rural virginia community but what sets him apart is that his best friend is an angel the angel is god s answer to a childhood prayer andy offered to a twinkling star that his deceased mother once called the door to heaven the first angelic proclamation instructs andy to find the wooden keepsake box in his grandparents attic over the years he directs andy to fill it with apparently meaningless objects from twelve people with who andy randomly crosses paths andy s world is turned upside down when a brutal attack leaves andy burned and the boy he loved as a son dead at this crucial juncture the angel abandons him to loneliness and pain all that remains is the wooden box andy has always kept safe and a new angel who will use its contents to reveal truth to him as a result he discovers the defining truth of his life new hope in the community he loves and greater trust in the god who sustains him the story is told from andy s hospital bed where he awakes feeling god has abandoned him without being preachy or saccharine the author brings the small town to life and reveals a spiritual secret the presence of angels that helps a wounded man discover the defining truth of his life place new hope in the community he loves and trust totally in the god who sustains him in revelations of ideology g anthony keddie proposes a new theory of the social function of judaeen apocalyptic texts produced in early roman palestine 63 bce 70 ce in contrast to evaluations of jewish and early christian apocalyptic texts as literature of the oppressed or literature of resistance against empire keddie demonstrates that scribes produced apocalyptic texts to advance ideologies aimed at self-legitimation by revealing that their opponents constituted an exploitative class scribes generated apocalyptic ideologies that situated them in the same exploited class as their constituents through careful historical and ideological criticism of the psalms of solomon parables of enoch testament of moses and q source keddie identifies an internally diverse tradition of apocalyptic class rhetoric in late second temple judaism
