The blacker the berry is a notable children's book for middle readers. It is a story about a young girl named Mari who is interned at Topaz Relocation Center during World War II. While she and her family are interned, Mari gradually adjusts as she enrolls in an art class, makes a friend, plants sunflowers, and waits for them to grow. The book is a powerful story of resilience and hope.

The whole library handbook now in its fifth edition is an encyclopedia filled with facts, tips, lists, and resources essential for library professionals and information workers of all kinds. All carefully handpicked to reflect the most informative, practical, up-to-date, and entertaining examples of library literature, organized in easy-to-find categories. This unique compendium covers all areas of librarianship, from academic libraries to teen services, from cataloging to copyright and from gaming to social media. Selections include facts and figures on library workers, bookmobile guidelines, 100 great libraries of the world, job search and recruitment techniques, and advice on how to deal with tough economic times, tips on writing articles and book reviews, fun with cataloging, rules, famous librarians, favorite books, covering a huge spectrum of librarianship. This one-of-a-kind volume is both educational and entertaining.

Esteemed contributors expand the range of possibilities for reading, understanding, and teaching children's literature as ethnic literature rather than children's literature. In this ambitious collection, Fall Has Come, The Wind Is Gusting, and Leaf Man is on the Move. Is he drifting east over the marsh and ducks and geese, or is he heading west above the orchards, prairie meadows, and spotted cows? No one's quite sure, but this much is certain:

a leaf man s got to go where the wind blows with illustrations made from actual fall leaves and die cut pages on every spread that reveal gorgeous landscape vistas here is a playful whimsical and evocative book that celebrates the natural world and the rich imaginative life of children includes an author s note and leaf identifying labels research indicates boys are interested in reading nonfiction materials yet most children s librarians prefer to booktalk fiction offering citations for more than 1 100 books gotcha for guys deals specifically with books to pique the interest of middle grade boys a series of booktalks are grouped within chapters with like titles such as creepy crawly creatures disasters and unsolved mysteries action and innovation and all things gross complete booktalks are presented in a beginning section of chapters 1 9 a second section in each of these chapters contains short annotations and talks for other books of interest and a third section offers lists of well reviewed titles to consider for boys the book is enhanced with book cover art and reproducible lists for teachers and librarians created in consultation with teachers and public librarians this fantastic collection of 101 ready to use book lists provides invaluable help for any educator who plans activities for children that involve using literature nancy j keane is the author of the award winning website booktalks quick and simple nancykeane com booktalks as well as the creator of the open collaboration wiki atn book lists with 101 great ready to use book lists for children she provides another indispensable resource for librarians and teachers the lists in this book are the result of careful consultation with teachers and public librarians and from discussions on professional email lists these indispensable reading lists can be used in many ways for example as handouts to teachers as suggested reading to create book displays or as display posters in the library this collection will help educators support the extended reading demands of today s children
