organization but also to serve as the school community s spiritual leader and the vigilant steward who keeps the budget balanced the building clean and maintaining a healthy enrollment in the school each of these tasks can be a full time job yet the catholic school principal takes on these tasks day after day year after year so that teachers may teach as jesus did the goal of this book is to provide both beginning and seasoned catholic school leaders with some insights that might help them to meet these challenges with a sense of confidence the words in this text provide research based approaches for dealing with issues of practice especially those tasks that are not ordinarily taught in educational leadership programs this text helps to make sense of the pastoral side of catholic education in terms of structures mission identity curriculum and relationships with the principal s varied constituencies it also provides some insights into enrollment management issues finances and development and the day in day out care of the organization and its home the school building as a catholic school leader each must remember that the catholic school is not just another educational option the catholic school has a rich history and an important mission historically education of the young goes back to the monastic and cathedral schools of the middle ages in the united states catholic schools developed as a response to anti catholic bias that was rampant during the nineteenth century catholic schools developed to move their immigrant and first generation american youth from the catholic ghetto to successful careers and lives in the american mainstream however most importantly catholic schools have brought christ to generations of youngsters it remains the continuing call of the catholic school to be a center of evangelization a place where gospel values live in the lives of faculty students and parents this text attempts to integrate the unique challenges of the instructional leader of the institution with the historical and theological underpinnings of contemporary catholic education children behaving badly violence between children is a controversial and frequently misunderstood issue one that has seen media fuelled moral panic come to dominate public perceptions and debate children behaving badly presents a powerful challenge to commonly held beliefs about peer violence and portrays it as an important

child welfare concern by gathering together the most updated international research and expert commentary on peer violence issues from across the childhood spectrum this volume directly addresses the complexity of this troubling issue from a range of multidisciplinary disciplines and perspectives contributions throughout the text reveal how childhood is not a homogenous experience but fragmented by gender ethnicity sexuality and poverty which are each addressed within specific chapters other issues explored include pre school children and peer violence bullying youth gangs knife crime teenage partner violence sibling abuse homophobia international media depictions of violent youth and implications for professionals working with children and young people throughout the text new and original research insights are presented with the goal of providing the reader with a greater understanding of the safeguarding of children and young people from this form of violence children behaving badly is essential reading for policy makers researchers students and practitioners from a wide range of child welfare disciplines about a highly topical and complex social problem collection of the monthly climatological reports of the united states by state or region with monthly and annual national summaries given that touch and touching is so central to everyday embodied existence why has it been largely ignored by social scientists for so long what is the place of touch in our mixed spaces of sociality work domesticity recreation creativity or care what conceptual resources and academic languages can we reach towards when approaching tactile activities and somatic experiences through the body how is this tactile landscape gendered how is touch becoming revisited and revalidated in late capitalism through animal encounters tourism massage beauty treatments professional medicine everyday spiritualities or the aseptic touch free spaces of automated toilets how is touch placed and valued within scholarly fieldwork and research itself integral as it is to the production of embodied epistemologies how is touch involved in such aesthetic experiences as shaping objects in sand or encountering fleshly bodies within a painting the goal of this edited collection touching space placing touch is twofold 1 to further advance theoretical and empirical understanding of touch in social science scholarship by focussing on the differential social and cultural meanings of touching and the places of touch 2 to develop a multi faceted and interdisciplinary explanations of touch in terms of individual and social life personal experiences and tasks and their related cultural contexts the twelve essays in this volume provide a rich combination of theoretical resources methodological approaches and empirical investigation each chapter takes a distinct aspect of touch within a particular spatial context exploring this through a mixture of sustained empirical work critical theories of embodiment philosophical and psychoanalytic approaches to gendered touch and touching or the relationship between visual and non visual culture to articulate something of the variety and variability of touching experiences the contributors are a mixture of established and emerging researchers within a growing interdisciplinary field of scholarship yet the volume has a strong thematic identity and therefore represents the formative collection concerning the multiple senses of touch within social science scholarship at this time
