affective movements methods and pedagogies invites readers to think with affect about performance pedagogies and their inherent activist embodied and collective natures it works across multiple spheres to help readers understand how to deploy affective approaches rather than to simply think with affect theory about traditional methods the book is structured and curated across three main thematic sections affective movements methods and pedagogies each of which treats the core explorations of affect and performance through a different perspective it is concerned with the ways performance and theatrical methods work with and through a theoretics of affect the sixteen chapters include work that models theoretical practices in writing and demonstrates how theorising affect and its methods is itself a performative practice the contributors offer rich examples from diverse geopolitical as well as disciplinary contexts innovative methods and finally intersectional theoretics this collection will be of interest to higher education students exploring
