this book stems from an examination of how western philosophy has accounted for the foundations of law in this tradition the character of the sovereign or lawgiver has provided the solution to this problem but how does the sovereign acquire the right to found law as soon as we ask this question we are immediately confronted with a convoluted combination of jurisprudence and theology the author begins by tracing a lengthy and deeply nuanced exchange between derrida and nancy on the question of community and fraternity and then moves on to engage with a diverse set of texts from the marquis de sade saint augustine kant hegel and kafka these texts which range from the canonical to the apocryphal all struggle in their own manner with the question of the foundations of law each offers a path to the law if a reader accepts any path as it is and follows without question the law is set and determined and the possibility of dialogue is closed the aim of this book is to approach the foundations of law from a series of different angles so that we can begin to see that those foundations are always in question and open to the possibility of dialogue
