Mother Goose Jazz Chants 1994 excerpt from gregorian chant for the teacher the choir and the school while it is of course proper to have the whole mass sung according to the rite of the feast this rule may be relaxed in the case of a new choir and the easier settings learned first when you start your new choir class don't waste time in trying the voices of the boys get as many as you are able to handle easily and start them all on the first exercises boys may be taken as soon as they are able to read you will soon find out whether you have any one whose ear is deficient by his not being able to follow the tune you may have some boys who try to sing an octave below these and those whose ears seem to be defective should be taken out of the main class and worked with separately for a time before you finally decide whether you will retain them or not the choir should have a comfortable practice room one which is used for no other purpose besides the seats coat and hat hooks book closets etc you should have a blackboard and a grand or square piano which should be always kept in good order an upright piano is not suitable because the teacher when using it must necessarily turn his back to the class as gregorian chant can be sung intelligently from its own notation only don t get editions of the chant books ln modern notation if you do so you will have to teach your singers to attach to the various signs meanings which do not belong to them and when you come to the stu modern music all this work will have to be undone don t send your new choir into the church before it is properly the work expected of it the time required for the preliminary tra course depend a great deal upon the quality of your raw material about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Grammar chants 1993 the wakuenai of the upper rio negro region in southern venezuela a form of singing called malikai for ceremonies of childbirth initiation and healing this ritual chanting a rich amalgam of myth and music serves as a means of integrating individuals into a vertical hierarchy of powers relations between mythic ancestors and human descendants in keepers of the sacred chants jonathan hill shows how the musical and semantic transformations of everyday discourse in malikai integrate the everyday world into a poetic process of empowerment he interprets malikai through mythic narratives that explain the cosmos as an ongoing process of musically naming into being the species objects and activities that define individual humanness and society and he further shows how semantic and musical meanings are joined to construct each chant and how these chants are manipulated in different contexts hill explains how the musical elements of malikai contribute to the success of performance comparing different genres for which different musical criteria are appropriate he considers the integration of speech and song through a close analysis of such elements as microtonal pitch rise rhythm and timbre showing how these features are linked to poetic speech and imbued with social power hill s penetrating study of malikai is made within the context of wakuenai history and cosmology and considers influences resulting from contact with the outside world because northern arawakan speaking peoples have received less attention than others of the region his book thus makes a significant contribution to amazonian ethnography it is the author s focus on malikai however that commends keepers of the sacred chants to all interested in the multitextured uses of song and story by peoples of the world
