the papers of the volume investigate how authoritative figures in the second temple period and beyond contributed to forming the scriptures of judaism as well as how these scriptures shaped ideal figures as authoritative in early judaism the topic of the volume thus reflects ben wright s research who especially with his work on ben sira on the letter of aristaeus and on various problems of authority in early jewish texts creatively contributed to the study of the formation of scriptures and to the understanding of the figures behind these texts

chinese canadians have been among the earliest of settlers to this land we now call british columbia this book celebrates a community whose legacy can be found as physical traces in the landscape and in the social and economic transformations that have occurred over the decades in the larger society as a result of the 2014 apology supported by all members of the legislative assembly for historic laws directly and specifically imposed on chinese canadians by past provincial governments a number of legacy projects were formulated these projects including this book celebration chinese canadian legacies in british columbia were developed and advised by a council consisting of community leaders and academics in total 20 members and two co chairs as with all legacy projects this book reflects the goals of educating the public and increasing awareness of past discriminatory practices as well it celebrates heritage values and the community s achievements by focusing on individual stories the book s intention is to illustrate and contextualize the development and history of
