S. Pauls Confession of Faith, or a Brief account of his religion. In a sermon, etc 1685 crime is men s business isn t it women are responsible for 10 percent of crime in europe yet if we look at the dutch republic in the early modern period we find that in the towns of holland women played a much larger role in crime in a number of early modern towns about half of the criminals convicted in court were women these women were in vulnerable positions and thus more likely to become involved in crime they also had a relatively independent status and led remarkably public lives manon van der heijden convincingly shows that it is the very combination of women s vulnerability and independence that accounts for the high female crime rates in holland between 1600 and 1800

The Confession of an Octogenarian 2023-07-28 it s time for a nuanced discussion about forgiveness from religious communities to therapeutic spaces the importance of forgiving those who ve wronged us is often enshrined as an unqualified good but what about horrifying cases of abuse predatory behavior or systemic wrong too often when predators or abusers are exposed the chorus comes immediately what about forgiveness in these cases forgiveness places the onus on victims diminishes real hurt and anger lets perpetrators off the hook and prevents justice from being done in not so sorry journalist and culture critic kaya oakes tackles these questions with intelligence nuance and a bit of righteous anger ranging effortlessly from christian theology and world history to psychology and pop culture oakes takes us on a whirlwind tour of the many abuses of the concept of forgiveness including the abuse scandals of the catholic church the outing of high profile abusers like larry nassar and white america s obsession with false narratives of marginalized peoples granting forgiveness to oppressors ultimately oakes dares us to ask the necessary question is it ever better not to forgive

The Great Confession 2012-07-19 a composite philosophical work with a modern pretext and a very traditional questing spirit it concerns two north african brothers during the period of decolonization marcel a successful pragmatic doctor and emile a writer obsessed with the riddle of himself and his existence emile has disappeared and marcel charged with organizing a drawerful of writings is forced into reluctant intimacy with his brother s mind the chronicles stories and confessions seemingly random at first slowly disclose an order as levels of a single truth which emile has attempted to reach and curiously as marcel s resistance is overcome he begins to recognize the same impulse in himself past and present their existential problem is symbolized by the scorpion in a game of torture when it can t escape a ring of fire it stings itself deliberately or accidentally in frenzy fatally or to be briefly stunned and of the game itself and its spectators what are their motives and what is revealed obviously it takes some nerve to venture into such areas as fully as memmi does risking bombast dullness and not least a frightening degree of self exposure and that risk is not only the acknowledged heart of his meaning but a measure of his success as impressive as the honest intelligence is the fact that such a range and depth of awareness have been martialled into unified and compelling fiction kirkus

Lie Detection and the Law 2014-11-18 sean hannan offers a new interpretation of augustine of hippo s approach to temporality by contrasting it with contemporary accounts of time drawn from philosophy political theology and popular science hannan argues that rather than offering us a deceptively simple roadmap forward augustine asks us to face up to the question of time itself before we take on tasks like transforming ourselves and our world augustine discovered that the disorientation we feel in the face of change is a symptom of a deeper problem namely that we cannot truly comprehend time even while it conditions every facet of our lives this book puts augustine into creative conversation with contemporary thinkers from pierre hadot and giorgio agamben to steven pinker and stephen hawking on questions such as the definition of time the metaphysics of transformation and the shape of history the goal is to learn what augustine can teach us about the nature of temporality and the possibility of change in this temporal world of ours
