the latino education crisis not only threatens to dash the middle class aspirations of the nation s largest immigrant group it is also an ominous sign for democratic engagement and global competitiveness for u s society as a whole this timely book argues that this crisis is more aptly characterized as a mexican education crisis this book brings together voices that are rarely heard on the same stage mexican and u s scholars of migration schooling and human development to articulate a new approach to mexican american schooling a bi national focus that highlights the interpersonal assets of mexican origin children contributors document the urgency of adopting this approach and provide a framework for crossing national and disciplinary borders to improve scholarship policy and practice associated with prek 12 schooling contributors james d bachmeier frank d bean susan k brown benilde garcía cabrero cynthia garcía coll regina cortina ivania de la cruz guadalupe ruiz cuéllar claudia galindo francisco x gaytán edmund t hamann nadia huq mark a leach gabriela livas stein carmina makar mary martinez wenzl vilma ortíz maría guadalupe pérez martínez leslie reese rosaura tafoya estrada edward telles ernesto treviño víctor zúñiga this volume is one of a kind it represents a first step in what we hope will be an ongoing relationship between the institutions and the researchers on both sides of the border who have both an appreciation for the importance of this work and a dedication to improving the educational opportunities of those students that we share in time space and culture from the foreword by patricia gándara and eugene garcía a fresh eye opening array of essays that highlights how the economic and cultural vitality of the u s and mexico is so tightly interwoven in colorful and breathtaking ways setting aside strident allegations of how immigrants differ from mainstream society the authors illustrate our commonalities how mexican parents are among the most pro family hardest working families in our society bien educado is not just metaphor it animates how immigrant parents raise engaged children along with a vibrant optimism about getting into america bruce fuller professor education public policy university of california berkeley regarding educación is an extraordinary achievement world class scholars from both the u s and mexico come together to engage one of the most important developments in education in the 21st century how do we educate the children we share across transnational borders to thrive in an ever more interconnected miniaturized and fragile global world the answers they provide are timely riveting and humane it is a book every teacher every policymaker and every engaged citizen interested in globalization and education must read marcelo m suárez orozco dean and distinguished professor of education ucla
