My Autobiography 1992 in early 2006 after a visit to canada to visit my sisters i came back to england alert confident and able to once again reclaim my independence i didnt know but apparently it was common knowledge that a key to my house had been found or at least that is what was claimed it had apparently been lost in the street i awoke one night i had not locked the bedroom door and there was a man standing in the room a candle in his hand he was standing about eight feet away just watching me i was terrified and realised i had to keep totally still he knew he had woken me though and said im not going to hurt you go back to sleep my subconscious must have recognised the voice and trusted the person because i did go back to sleep thereafter i ensured the bedroom door was locked this and other instances make me realise how vulnerable i was to rape abuse or being murdered in the house where i lived i later learned that the neighbours would enter my house either by climbing in through the window or using the key which they had found

Mary Quant 2019-08-16 acting wasn't a long held childhood dream for Larry Lamb instead his childhood memories are filled with recollections of his parents continuously fighting life in the Lamb household veered from laughter and happy moments to hysterical outbursts Larry was only too often caught in the middle and found himself at the centre of his father's raging anger tormented by a man who struggled with the enormity of fatherhood when his parents marriage finally broke down Larry's mother moved out for years Larry didn't know where his mum lived and he didn't dare talk of her at home his mother's absence left a gaping hole as soon as Larry was old enough he left home putting as much distance as he could between himself and his volatile childhood he set off on a journey looking for the close female companionship he'd missed out on with his mother as he went that would take him to work as an encyclopaedia salesman in Germany in the oil business in Libya and Nova Scotia until he found himself starring on Broadway in time it would take him to Hollywood too and bring him leading roles on the square in Eastenders and in Billerica in the much loved comedy Gavin and Stacey

My Autobiography 2018-10-10 in today s game there is no place on the pitch for player contact let alone the sort of hard robust tackling that could earn a player the nickname psycho but twenty five years ago things were different only when players really overstepped the mark were their names added to the referee s little black book and psycho pat van den hauwe had a reputation as one of the hardest players in the game in a career encompassing some 401 football league appearances for birmingham city everton tottenham hotspur and millwall he notched up two league titles and a european cup winners cup medal but he also made his mark as one of the toughest and most feared defenders in the game but pat wasn t just a tough player on the pitch the way he lived his life meant that he needed to be tough off the pitch as well a hard nut reputation invites people into your life who want to see how far they can push you and pat attracted such people by the bus load this autobiography is not the usual collection of career memories from an ex pro it is probably the most explicit book ever written by a former footballer throughout his career and long after he left the game pat van den hauwe courted danger in fact he nearly paid the ultimate price for living life to the extreme

Pat Van Den Hauwe - My Autobiography 2008-11-05 i came from a poor family but was afforded all the opportunities to make myself a better person than my parents who did not have those opportunities my childhood days were hard living on a farm getting up early in the morning doing my chores and then walking two miles to school my high school days was not as good as expected and i put that to the conditions under which i had to deal with living away from home sometimes under unpleasant situations and then getting up at 5 00 am to travel by train to georgetown to get to school i remember reading that abraham lincoln had to walk six miles per day to go to school and he became one of the best president of the united states of america my studies were cut short to assist my family when they were faced with major problems i realized that the experience i gained by joining the ssu made me a better person as i began my life anew i was determined to be successful in whatever my endeavors were success comes with hard work and perseverance and i took advantage of all the windows of opportunities that came my way like forming patrician phone corporation and south jamaica services and running for congress to the readers of my autobiography especially the younger generation i want to tell you that the sky is not the limit there are many opportunities out there you have to take the time to look for what interests you if i had to live my life over again i would probably do the same things all over again but i think with less mistakes i have no regrets because i did it my all way
