crimson tide the history of the million dollar band and how yea alabama became the school fight song the ua auburn rift and the ua response to wwi and to the women s rights movement romance is in the air during the fall wedding season in the amish community of cedar creek but while one loving couple prepares to tie the knot amanda and wyman brubaker s large family faces a threat from outside their happy circle and must learn to pull together recently wed amanda and wyman brubaker are thrilled that their children from previous marriages have blended together to form a strong family but when the construction of wyman s new grain elevator is delayed making the project more expensive than anticipated amanda's determination to rally the kids into taking on work to improve the family s finances comes into conflict with wyman s sense of responsibility as head of the household meanwhile as james graber and abby lambright prepare for their long awaited nuptials folks gather from far and wide amanda s nephew jerome has long been smitten with james s sister emma and wants to seize this chance to woo her but emma s been burned once and is twice shy of trusting the fun loving never serious jerome as emma and jerome struggle to understand each other and find the courage to make a leap of faith the brubakers face a bigger challenge than they first anticipated and begin to discover just what it means to fight the amish way through home sewing sarah a gordon examines domestic labor marketing practices changing standards of femininity and understandings of class gender and race from 1890 to 1930 as ready made garments became increasingly available due to industrialization many women out of necessity or choice continued to make their own clothing in doing so women used a customary female skill both as a means of supporting traditional ideas and as a tool of personal agency the shifting meanings of sewing formed a contested space in which businesses promoted sewing machines as tools for maintaining domestic harmony women interpreted patterns to suit or flout definitions of appropriate appearances and girls were taught to sew in ways that reflected beliefs about class race and region unlike studies of clothing that focus on changes in fashion make it yourself looks at the social and cultural processes surrounding home production gordon examines sewing clothing as work whether resented or enjoyed and the function of that work for families and individuals from a range of backgrounds another unique element is gordon s use of an unusually wide variety of source materials from diaries photographs and government pamphlets to tissue paper patterns dresses sewing workbooks and paper dolls this hands on approach combined with an accessible writing style connects the reader to the women and girls who are at the heart of her study altogether make it yourself provides a new perspective on a widespread yet often neglected form of women s work this richly illustrated book offers a glimpse into the lives and creativity of african american quilters during the era of slavery originally published in 1989 this was the first book to examine the history of quilting in the enslaved community and to place slave made quilts into historical and cultural context long before cell phones and computers home telephones were designated by a sequence of rings vol artists sketchbooks wills and household inventories children s toys and games and scrapbooks and journals items from individuals famous in american history rest alongside materials from people who led routine lives yet still contributed to the development of america an extensive microform collection including copies of material owned by other public repositories and private individuals supplements the manuscript holdings hardcover is un jacketed prior to 1862 when the department of agriculture was established the report on agriculture was prepared and published by the commissioner of patents and forms volume or part of volume of his annual reports the first being that of 1840 cf checklist of public documents washington 1895 p 148 although the financial disaster of 2008 proved devastatingly quick the evolution of the bad faith that drove the collapse is a more gradual story and one that david bosworth powerfully narrates in the demise of virtue in virtual america the moral origins of the great recession his sweeping history of the forces driving ethical political and economic change over the last sixty years here bosworth traces how the commercialization of public spaces and electronic information has created a new and enclosed american place chapter by chapter he then shows how the materialist values of this virtual america have suffused our everyday lives co opting the themes of our narratives the planks of our parties the practices of our professions and the most intimate aspects of our personal lives including our beliefs about god marriage and childcare from ronald reagan and disneyland to modern pharmacology and prosperity theology from the phony conservatism of wall street to the faux rebellion of transgressive art bosworth s alternative story of american life since 1950 relentlessly challenges today s dominant narratives narratives that as he reveals made both the calamitous invasion of iraq and the economic collapse of 2008 all too likely this is a book for activists students scholars of social movements and adult education and for the public interested in the contemporary movements of our times from the streets of barcelona and athens the public squares in cairo tunis and tripoli the flash mobs and virtual learning of the occupy movement and the shack dwellers of south africa people around the world are organising themselves to take action against the ravages of a capitalism that serves the greedy while impoverishing the rest social movements have arisen or re arisen in virtually every sector of human activity from concerns about the fate of our planet earth to dignity for those living with hiv aids to feeding smoldering ashes cuzco and the creation of republican ourselves in healthier ways and survival in places of violent conflict at the heart of each of these movements are activists and ordinary people learning how to change their lives and how to change the world this book offers contemporary theoretical and practical insights into the learning that happens both within and outside of social movements social movement scholars present work linked to the arts to organic farming to environmental action to grassroots activists in the global south to the arab spring the occupy movement the shackdwellers movements school reform and the role of marx gramscii and williams in understanding social movement learning the greatest contribution of this inspiring book is to remind us that learning and education in social movements help to make a difference not only does this collection enable us to understand how we might theorise and historicise learning in diverse contemporary social movements but its contributors do so with outspoken and passionate commitment to learning and education for a better world professor miriam zukas executive dean birkbeck university of london the burning demand for such a text comes from our contemporary moment that is witness to a world where nearly everything is commercialised marketised or commodified this text shuns an essentialist discourse while simultaneously and masterfully offering unprecedented insights into social movement learning and education the book is numinous professor robert hill university of georgia usa this is a book we have all been waiting for the editors have brought together an amazing cadre of international adult educators to probe the intersection of social movements and learning and to build theory around the many social actions that are taking place globally a must read for students and professors everywhere leona english phd st francis xavier university antigonish ns canada accessible engaging often inspirational the essays that comprise learning and education for a better world offer deep insights on the role of social movements as agencies of learning struggle and transformation from case studies that include the occupy movement popular education in latin america political cinema and the egyptian revolution to reflections on resistance aesthetics and the role of organic intellectuals this collection will be of interest to educators social scientists humanists and activists alike an interdisciplinary tour de force professor william carroll university of victoria canada this is such a timely collection of essays bringing together critical reflections on experiences of social action from across the globe this book is to be commended to the widest possible readership from the preface by emeritus professor marjorie mayo goldsmith s college the
