The Penguin Guide to Jazz on Compact Disc 1998 in where the colors blend stephen copeland s self discovery and god discovery is told over a period of six years in the context of an annual retreat to the blue ridge mountains in roanoke virginia where an obscure forty year old church softball tournament takes place each summer to raise funds for mission work in paraguay in stepping into these stories and sharing them with the reader stephen simultaneously journeys deeper within himself discovering the divine in the process and taking readers deep into the throes of doubt deconstruction and depression but it s there in the darkness that an authentic hope finds him throughout the narrative readers experience with stephen a number of paradigm shifts in the areas of spirituality from exhausting oneself trying to get close to god to simply abiding awakening to who we already are at the core of our beings as children of god psychology from suppressing emotions pains and insecurities to curiously and non judgmentally exploring them relationships from trying to change others or silently judging them to accepting others as they are and learning from those who are most different than ourselves abandoning ignorance and arrogance art writing and work from being taunted by internal demands and a relentless pursuit of perfection to simply enjoying the gift of the process stephen s present tense narrative mysteriously unfolding all the way is free thinking and free flowing swinging from humor to complex theology from someone else s story to sudden introspectiveness and application creating a unique experience for readers as it challenges them to adopt their own lifestyle of introspection and contemplation
