the contributors to race and higher education guide educators toward an understanding of how changes in the student population call for new approaches to classroom instruction and address the need for new pedagogical practices in increasingly diverse college classrooms over the last few decades u s colleges and universities have witnessed increasing diversity in their student bodies yet faculty members operating on the notion that one pedagogy fits all students continue to employ traditional modes of instruction this adherence to outdated pedagogies has created potentially harmful learning environments for all students and particularly for students of color race and higher education addresses this persistent problem guiding educators toward a better understanding of how changes in the student population have resulted in the need for new approaches to classroom instruction by including voices from inside classrooms along with analyses from scholarly researchers this volume provides college and university teachers administrators students and scholars with a critical instrument for improving higher education an inspiring and entertaining collection of unforgettable true stories about finding unexpected beauty in life s transitions from lin manuel miranda elizabeth gilbert quiana alegría hudes and many more the moth taught me how to be vulnerable how to take my time and how to listen to someone else s story and share in their moments of triumph laughter or yes sometimes embarrassment with an open heart mike birbiglia from the foreword an international rescue mission for paddington bear a family matriarch running numbers in detroit an epic lucha libre showdown in mexico city a beach vacation spent looking for the kennedys storytellers from around the world share times they found real beauty in the moments when their lives changed forever for better or for worse carefully selected by the creative minds at the moth and adapted to the page to preserve the raw energy of stories told live on stage and without notes a point of beauty features voices familiar and new this collection offers a shared message if we look closely enough we can find power in strengthening frayed bonds but also in having the courage to walk away from things that no longer feed our spirit through these storytellers passion and their hope they teach us all about what s worth holding on to our relationships with those we love the most our understanding of ourselves and of course gathering together to tell and listen to our stories the 2018 edition of the best american poetry a best anthology that really lives up to its title chicago tribune collects the most significant poems of the year chosen by poet laureate of california dana gioia the guest editor for 2018 dana gioia has an writing and editing literary anthologies having lived several lives gioia brings an insightful varied eclectic eye to this year s best american poetry with his classic essay can poetry matter originally run in the atlantic in 1991 gioia considered whether there is a place for poetry to be a part of modern american mainstream culture decades later the debate continues but best american poetry 2018 stands as evidence that poetry is very much present relevant and finding new readers this book brings new life to the long standing debate in the united states over whether teacher education k 12 teaching and the role that universities play in this work can be revolutionized so that they are less subject to self defeating conventions and orthodoxy to the benefit of all the nation s children author john schwille reexamines the ambitious reform agenda that michigan state university teacher education leaders brought to the national table in the 1980s and 1990s this attempted revolution mobilized unprecedented resources to the struggle to transform teaching and learning of subject matter conveying this history through the words of the teachers and scholars responsible for it schwille shows that a great deal was achieved but many of the lessons learned continue to be ignored you ve heard about flipping your classroom now find out how to do it introducing a new way to think about higher education learning and technology that prioritizes the benefits of the human dimension josé bowen recognizes that technology is profoundly changing education and that if students are going to continue to pay enormous sums for campus classes colleges will need to provide more than what can be found online and maximize naked face to face contact with faculty here he illustrates how technology is most powerfully used outside the classroom and when used effectively how it can ensure that students arrive to class more prepared for meaningful interaction with faculty bowen offers practical advice for faculty and administrators on how to engage students with new technology while restructuring classes into more active learning environments aimed at the growing number of educators who are looking to move beyond covering the curriculum designing authentic
