Pope Leo X 2006 leo strauss was a central figure in the twentieth century renaissance of political philosophy the essays of the cambridge companion to leo strauss provide a comprehensive and non partisan survey of the major themes and problems that constituted strauss's work these include his revival of the great quarrel between the ancients and the moderns his examination of tension between jerusalem and athens and most controversially his recovery of the tradition of esoteric writing the volume also examines strauss's complex relation to a range of contemporary political movements and thinkers including edmund husserl martin heidegger max weber carl schmitt and gershom scholem as well as the creation of a distinctive school of straussian political philosophy
The Cambridge Companion to Leo Strauss 2009-05-11 here is the second in a series of fun and interactive books that introduce french to very young children the book has lift up flaps and a delightful story following the antics of a mischievous skate boarding cat called leo in this second book leo is causing trouble during a visit to school children will love learning french words and phrases with leo in this dual language classic
Leo Le Chat Goes to School (Dual Language French/English) 2006-11-30 this volume in the allc series offers current and soon to be professionals in the esl efl field a comprehensive guide to how to make the best use of technology to enhance the english language learning experience the book has a predominant focus on practical insights that are based on successful real life experiences at the classroom and study program level including contributions from teachers in various countries nevertheless there is also a strong foundation in existing research and literature as they relate to the needs of english language teachers to promote reflective and exploratory practice there is plenty of food for thought for the reader although pre service and in service teachers represent the primary audience the book is likely to be just as useful for language program administrators researchers curriculum and materials writers and e learning developers

Technology for the Language Classroom 2017-09-16 a mentor advisor or even a friend making connections in college makes all the difference what single factor makes for an excellent college education as it turns out it's pretty simple human relationships decades of research demonstrate the transformative potential and the lasting legacies of a relationship rich college experience critics suggest that to build connections with peers faculty staff and other mentors is expensive and only an option at elite institutions where instructors have the luxury of time with students but in this revelatory book brimming with the voices of students faculty and staff from across the country peter felten and leo m lambert argue that relationship rich environments can and should exist for all students at all types of institutions in relationship rich education felten and lambert demonstrate that for relationships to be central in undergraduate education colleges and universities do not require immense resources privileged students or specially qualified faculty and staff all students learn best in an environment characterized by high expectation and high support and all faculty and staff can learn to teach and work in ways that enable relationship based education emphasizing the centrality of the classroom experience to fostering quality relationships felten and lambert focus on students influence in shaping the learning environment for their peers as well as the key difference a single well timed conversation can make in a student s life they also stress that relationship rich education is particularly important for first generation college students who bring significant capacities to college but often face long standing inequities and barriers to attaining their educational aspirations drawing on nearly 400 interviews with students faculty and staff at 29 higher education institutions across the country relationship rich education provides readers with practical advice on how they can develop and sustain powerful relationship based learning in their own contexts ultimately the book is an invitation and a challenge for faculty administrators and student life staff to move relationships from the periphery to the center of undergraduate education

Relationship-Rich Education 2020-11-03 responding to volatile criticisms frequently leveled at leo strauss and those he influenced the prominent contributors to this volume demonstrate the profound influence that strauss and his students have exerted on american liberal democracy and contemporary political thought by stressing the enduring vitality of classic books and by articulating the theoretical and practical flaws of relativism and historicism the contributors argue that strauss and the straussians have identified fundamental crises of modernity and liberal democracy this book emphasizes the broad range of strauss s influence from literary criticism to constitutional thought and it denies the existence of a monolithic straussian political orthodoxy both critics and supporters of strauss thought are included all political theorists interested in strauss s extraordinary impact on political thought will want to read this book

Interaction in the Language Curriculum 2013-10-01 leo's misadventures is about leo mcgregor a twenty year old surfer dude from kitty hawk north carolina who won a 156 million lottery he decided to get out of town for a while to get away from the locals who badgered him for a handout he hitchhiked across america to santa monica california via route 66 after a thirty nine day journey across the country leo ended up at the santa monica pier with a journal full of stories and a girlfriend named abby walker when he left kitty hawk he had no idea what he would do when he arrived at his destination would he turn around and head back east or stick around on the west coast for a while leo and abby rented a beach house on the pacific ocean near the famous pier to give them time to figure things out on his journey leo had given a lot of thought about the best way to use the money he had won after much thought and discussion with abby he decided to start a charitable foundation he and abby found a nice office space near the pier and leased it for one year leo needed an attorney and found one in santa monica named jess who helped him set up the foundation with his charitable foundation up and running leo needed someone to run the day to day operations he found freddy who lived in malibu with his adopted parents to fill this critical position leo abby jess and freddy became good friends and enjoyed themselves on the coast when they weren't working eventually leo bought an apartment building on the beach and converted it into a surf shop he hired brody a local surf builder to run the shop and use locals to help create the boards any profits would be donated to charity with everything running smoothly leo began to ponder the need for similar charities in other parts of the country or internationally

Introducing Bruner 2000 moving beyond alignment and national boilerplate standards this book takes the position that curriculum and instruction are inseparable concepts from the institutional point of view and presents strategies to ensure their congruency to achieve student success it is imperative that educational leaders have superb knowledge and skills in curriculum and instructional leadership whether they operate from the central office or the building level bradley contends that paper and pencil tests to measure student achievement on basic and minimum skills will certainly remain as one criterion of school evaluation however the public and the educational community will continue to demand the maximizing of potential for all students as an evaluation component of equal value and importance the educational leader of today and tomorrow will need the knowledge and skills to facilitate this two pronged approach to student achievement through curriculum design development implementation and evaluation curriculum leadership has as its purpose the preparation of leaders to facilitate this process
