Blood and Wine

2008-08-15

blood and wine is compiled from a collection of fictional writings free verse and autobiographical material i wrote and published in several books over the years i selected segments i thought were essential to the general focus of my book to hone prose and target free verse to signify the creative process within which my book strives i began the book with a poetic challenge intruders do not enter the mind of the unborn child in the womb of thought thereby promoting prose against the originality of free verse when mark boucher played one of his first games of cricket for south africa a senior player took him aside and bluntly told him he was the worst wicketkeeper ever to play in the national side over a decade later when bouch finally retired with a plethora of records under his belt and to huge acclaim from the public he took grim satisfaction in relating this piece of history through my eyes is the story of a man with remarkable sporting prowess born into a sports mad family in east london he excelled in squash tennis and rugby before choosing cricket as his preferred sport his extraordinary achievements on the field are well known he was voted sa player of the year in 1998 2000 and 2006 what is not so well known and makes up much of this book are the behind the scenes stories and anecdotes stories of staring down the barrel of defeat and of celebrating victory of developing strong bonds with teammates graeme smith jacques kallis and others that go way beyond mere friendship what emerges is the image of a man who always fought for the underdog whose never say die attitude inspires those around him bouch s career was brought to a dramatic end on a cricket pitch in england when the bail of a stump punctured his left eye but in his own words i lost sight but gained vision true to his character of gritty determination bouch has rededicated his life to a new cause that of the environment and particularly the critically endangered rhino
