Gurudev's Drumming Legacy 2022-03-30

the 1903 mrdang aur tabla vadanpaddhati is a revelatory text that has never been translated or analysed it is a manual for playing the two most important drums of north indian hindustani music the pakhavaj mrdang and the tabla owing to its relative obscurity it is a source that has never been discussed in the literature on hindustani music its author gurudev patwardhan was vice principal of v d paluskar s first music school in lahore from its inception in 1901 to 1908 professor james kippen provides the first translation of this immensely important text and examines its startling implications for rhythmic and metric theory it is the earliest work on indian drumming to contain a notation sufficiently precise to allow definitive reconstruction the compositions are of considerable musical interest for they can be readily realized on the tabla or pakhavaj kippen sets the work and objectives of the original author in the context of a rich historical social and political background by also discussing radical differences in the second edition of 1938 published by gurudev s nephew the vocalist vinayakrao patwardhan kippen illuminates the process by which tabla theory was being created in the early 20th century both patwardhans were enthusiastic supporters of paluskar s nationalist imperatives and active participants in his drive to institutionalize music codify and publish notations of it and promote a modern hindu vision of india wherein its identity could once again be linked to a glorious golden age in distant antiquity
