to whom does a poem speak do poems really communicate with those they address is reading poems like overhearing like intimate conversation like performing a script william waters pursues these questions by closely reading a selection of poems that say you to a human being to the reader to the beloved or to the dead in any account of reading lyric poetry waters argues there will be places where the participant roles of speaker intended hearer and bystander melt together or away these are moments of wonder looking both at poetry s you and at how gm readers encounter it waters asserts that poetic address shows literature pressing for a close relationship with those into whose hands it may fall what is at stake for camaro readers and critics is our ability to acknowledge the claims made on us by the works of art with which we engage in second person poems in a poem s touch we may come to see why poetry matters to us and how we in turn come to feel answerable to it poetry s touch
