italian literature in the nuclear age a poetics of the bystander explores the overlooked position of the bystander in the nuclear age by focusing on the italian situation as a paradigmatic case host to hundreds of american atomic weapons while lacking a nuclear arsenal of its own italy s status was an ambiguous one that of an unwilling and in many ways passive accomplice inspired by seamus heaney s dictum that there is no such thing as innocent by standing the book frames italy s fraught mix of implication and powerlessness not only as a geopolitical question but as a way to rethink the role of the sidelined intellectual in the face of mass extinction italian literature in the nuclear age includes discrete chapters on the major italian intellectuals of the time italo calvino alberto moravia elsa morante pier paolo pasolini and leonardo sciascia conscious of their own political marginalization these authors address the atomic question through a wide range of experimental forms approaching the nearly unthinkable theme in allusive and oblique ways often dismissed as disengaged inconsistent or merely playful these works demand instead a political reading capable of recognizing their confrontation with the paradoxes of the nuclear age cosa significa essere diversi cosa significa essere uguali il pianista è un viaggio nell anima e nella vita di due persone che condividono uno stesso destino scandito dalla musica che descrive insieme alle parole una vita forse difficile e diversa dalla normalità ma che da il giusto riscatto a chi viene ingiustamente etichettato come diverso un universo di musica accompagna la narrazione creando così un racconto unico nel suo genere in den 1960er jahren intensivierte der schriftsteller italo calvino seine ästhetischen bemühungen die landkarte des labyrinthischen gefängnisses zu umreißen in dem sich der mensch des 20 jahrhunderts bewegt es ging ihm darum mithilfe seiner poetik biopolitische dispositive der welt zu entwirren dabei stellt die erzählung la giornata d uno scrutatore die epistemologische schwelle dar an der calvino auf die widerstandskraft des lebendigen stößt auf basis dieses neuen lebensbegriff entwarf er eine vielzahl poetologischer verfahren um die lebendigkeit der komplexen welt ästhetisch aufzubereiten und eröffnete damit gezielt ethische diskurse durch die bio poetische annäherung schlägt calvino ein neues literarisches modell vor das vielfache anschlussmöglichkeiten für aktuelle diskurse bietet mit dem fokus auf die poetische kategorie des lebendigen und das foucault sche konzept der bio macht vollzieht der band eine Neubewertung des werkes und auch der rolle italo calvinos als karthograph der dispositive ristampa dell originale del 1870 il silenzio è l unico compagno di un uomo che vive in un appartamento alquanto strano e attraverso il suo computer osserva l evolversi di una catastrofe che ha coinvolto l intero pianeta solo lui è a conoscenza di una verità impercettibile e lovecraftiana o almeno così pensa this anthology highlights the rich range of modern italian fiction presenting the first english translations of works by many famous authors contents include fables and stories by italo calvino elsa morante alberto moravia and cesare pavese historical fiction by leonardo sciascia and mario rigoni stern and little known tales by luigi pirandello and carlo emilio gadda no further apparatus or reference is necessary for this self contained text appropriate for high school and college courses as well as for self study this volume will prove a fine companion for teachers and intermediate level students of italian language and literature as well as readers wishing to brush up on their language skills dover 2013 original publication see every dover book in print at doverpublications com modern italian poets shows how the new genre shaped the poetic practice of the poet translators who worked within it this book presents an analysis of the dialogue of literature and science that forms a central part of the work of italo calvino one of italy s best known contemporary authors it provides an in depth study of calvino s interest in scientific models and methods and the ways these have informed his narratives derek duncan s timely study is the first book in english to examine constructions of male homosexuality in italian literature in admirably clear and elegant prose duncan analyzes texts ranging from the 1890s through the 1990s he brings canonical authors like d annunzio and pasolini together with under appreciated writers like comisso and also looks at less conventionally literary genres duncan takes on the thorny theoretical issues surrounding questions of gay identity and also provides a sound historical context for his discussion of how italian narrative sheds light on italian homosexuality and on the broader issues attending contemporary sexuality including complicating factors such as race while the early texts considered were produced at a historical moment when homosexuality as a culturally meaningful entity had yet to crystallize recent autobiographies show the authors reflecting explicitly on questions of gay identity and what it means to be a homosexual male in present day italy in charting the emergence of the homosexual in twentieth century italy however duncan s focus is less on questions of identity than on the meaning attributed to sex between men in the broader cultural context his book is a significant contribution to italian literary criticism and to gender gay and cultural studies this first study in english of the complete writings of italo calvino 1923 85 offers new interpretations of calvino s main works taking into account some important unpublished material and analyses calvino s intertextual links with major writers of world literature conrad stevenson hemingway and borges postmodern elements in his texts are assessed and a chapter on calvino s critical essays shed important light on his creative process the author in criticism italo calvino s authorial image in italy the united states and the united kingdom explores the cultural and historic patterns and differences in the critical readings of italian author italo calvino s works in the united states of america the united kingdom and italy it considers the external factors that contribute to create recognizable patterns in the readings of calvino s texts in different contexts this volume therefore covers most notably matters of genre science fiction postmodernism cultural perceptions and conventions the re current image of the author in different media academic schools curricula and canons biographical information such as gender and background and translation and the language in which the author speaks or fails to speak to us it traces the influence of these aspects in the academic discourse on calvino the author in criticism also analyzes calvino s various professional roles as writer editor essayist journalist private correspondent and public cosmopolitan intellectual reappraising their often little acknowledged importance for academic criticism an important underlying idea is that the preconceived image that every critic has of calvino before even opening one of his books is often solidified and repeated even in the most refined and complex critical analyses this volume purposefully foregrounds the textual and non textual parts that are usually considered peripheral to the works of an author such as book covers blurbs reviews talks interviews etc in this way this book provides insight into the reception of calvino s works in different countries moreover it forms a broader reflection of and on important constants in the workings of literary criticism and on the way academic discourses have developed in various cultural contexts over the last decades what role did dante play in the work of pier paolo pasolini 1922 1975 his unfinished and fragmented imitation of the comedia la divina mimesis is only one outward sign of what was a sustained dialogue with dante on representation begun in the early 1950s during this period the philologists gianfranco contini 1912 1990 and erich auerbach 1892 1957 played a crucial role in pasolini s re thinking of represented reality suggesting dante as the best literary authorial and political model for a generation of postwar italian writers this emerged first as dantean realism in pasolini s prose and poetry after contini s interpretation of dante and of his plurilingualism and then as figural realism in his cinema after auerbach s concepts of dante s figura and mingling of styles following the evolution of pasolini s mimetic ideal from these formative influences through to la divina mimesis emanuela patti explores pasolini s politics of representation in relation to the national popular the questione della lingua and the italian post war debates on neorealism while also providing a new interpretation of some of his major literary and cinematic works introduces and analyses a stage performance of texts by italian modernist writer carlo emilio gadda when do we start going to war and why and what did it mean to go to war from world war i to world war ii and beyond in italy before and after mussolini before and after that is that warring spirit of the age which keeps nations in fighting mode both time specific and universal these questions are explored in this book through a unique combination of scholarly and theatrical performance based on the war diaries and a belated anti mussolini pamphlet by italy s greatest modernist writer carlo emilio gadda 1893 1973 these works were adapted for the stage by actor playwright and director fabrizio giffuni in 2010 and are now presented for the first time in english supplemented with facing italian text a dvd of the performance with english subtitles and an engaging thought provoking scholarly guide to italy s own joyce purposely produced for the anglophone audience by the edinburgh gadda projects team key features introduces italy s greatest modernist writer to the anglophone audience in five sections poetics circulation translation staging and resources provides a flexible teaching and learning aid for work across subject areas presents the first significant new english gadda translation since the 1960s includes the original italian texts with facing english translation and the dvd of the italian performance with english subtitles fabrizio giffuni is one of italy s leading actors his career successfully combines cinema and theatre in 2011 he was awarded the prestigious federico fellini prize for his outstanding career in the arts federica g pedriali is professor of literary metatheory and modern italian studies and head of italian studies at the university of edinburgh she is the founder and director of the edinburgh gadda projects general editor of the edinburgh journal of gadda studies and director of the italo scottish research centre writing architecture in modern italy tells the history of an intellectual group connected to the small but influential italian einaudi publishing house between the 1930s and the 1950s it concentrates on a diverse group of individuals including bruno zevi an architectural historian and politician giulio carlo argan an art historian italo calvino a fiction writer giulio einaudi a publisher and elio vittorini and cesare pavese both writers and translators linking architectural history and historiography within a broader history of ideas this book proposes four different methods of writing history defining historiographical genres modes and tones of writing that can be applied to history writing to analyze political and social moments in time it identifies four writing genres myths chronicles history and fiction which became accepted as forms of multiple postmodern historical stories after 1957 an important contribution to the architectural debate writing architecture in modern italy will appeal to those interested in the history of architecture history of ideas and architectural education the encyclopedia of italian literary studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of italian literary culture it includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field the encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of italian literary studies the encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person it will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of italian literature
