this guide to the study and use of military history is designed to foster an appreciation of the value of military history and explain its uses and the resources available for its study it is not a work to be read and lightly tossed aside but one the career soldier should read again or use as a reference at those times during his career when necessity or leisure turns him to the contemplation of the military past history is not just a study of past events but a product and an idea for the modernisation and consolidation of the nation the use of history in putin s russia examines how the past is perceived in contemporary russia and analyses the ways in which the russian state uses history to create a broad coalition of consensus and forge a new national identity central to issues of governance and national identity the russian state utilises history for the purpose of state building and reviving russia s national consciousness in the twenty first century assessing how history mediates the complex relationship between state and population this book analyses the selection process of constructing and recycling a preferred historical narrative to create loyal patriotic citizens ultimately aiding its modernisation different historical spheres of russian life are analysed in depth including areas of culture politics education and anniversaries the past is not just a state matter a socio political issue linked to the modernisation process containing many paradoxes this book has wide ranging appeal not only for professors and students specialising in russia and the former soviet space in the fields of history and memory international relations educational studies and intercultural communication but also for policymakers and think tanks a study of the use of history as political ammunition and literature as historical counter discourse in mongane serote s gods of our time mike nicol s the ibis tapestry and zakes mda s ways of dying moslund shows how literary engagement with the past seeks to rupture the continuity of a strongly dichotomised epistemology and through that dissolve the inherited polarisation of society falsification of history is exposed as constructed discourse and past simplifications of reality as sharply demarcated into homogenous self justifying categorisations of us against them are challenged with paradox doubt and
