at the beginning of a new writing project whether it s the first page of a new novel or a less ambitious project writers often experience exhilaration fear or dread for kristjana gunnars the call of a new project is like someone you don t know knocking on your door you either choose to let the person in or not it s both exciting and dangerous to start a new manuscript this book is an engagement with that stranger called writing creative or imaginative writing is a complex process that involves more than intellect alone writers make use of everything their sensibilities history culture knowledge experience education and even their biology these essays seek out and gather into a discussion what writers have said about their own experiences in writing although the writers are from around the world and of very different backgrounds the commonality of their remarks brings home the realization that writers everywhere are grappling with similar problems with the seemingly simple problems of when where why and what to write but also larger questions such as the relationship between writer and society or issues of privacy appropriation or homelessness while none of these questions can be definitively answered they can be fruitfully discussed originating as questions posed in creative writing seminars these essays have grown into companion texts for both writers and readers who want to participate in a conversation about what writers do this is a brief autobiography not in any way trying to summarize my life but rather to highlight points of gods intervention coming from a poor rural family in kenya africa i had no reason to expect much from life however my father believed in me at a time when women were just expected to serve men within the home so he decided to send me to school having been taught about god at home i wanted to know more about him when i went to school in 1957 i had a personal encounter with him and my life was never the same i came to identify myself with the apostle paul when he says for what i received i passed on to you as of first importance that christ died for our sins according to the scriptures that he was buried that he was raised on the third day according to the scriptures and that he appeared to all the apostles and last of all he appeared to me also as to one abnormally born for i am the least but by the grace of god i am what i am and his grace to me was not without effect 1 corinthians 15 3 10 the book is my attempt to pass on to the younger generation what i have received from the lord i have experienced many miracles that culminated in my coming to america where god has continued to surprise me almost on a daily basis i want my readers to know that though they may be the least in eyes of the world once they put their faith in the god of the bible his grace will be sufficient in all of lifes circumstances he is no respecter of persons he blesses men women and children black white slave and free
