-Studies in Social Life 1892 excerpt from of social life in an early essay i remarked that there was no definite science of society beyond that contained in such specific studies as economics and politics that view i now believe to be wholly mistaken and i hope that this present volume adds one to the many disproofs of it revealed by the recent progress of the subject there was some excuse for the contrary opinion for many a vain and specious formula has been set forward in the name of sociology many a hollow generalisation has been declared an eternal social law and too frequently the invention of terms has taken the place of the discovery of principles but the stars fulfilled their courses unmoved by the imaginations of astrologers and community works out social law despite the errors of us who profess to study it community is not only a real it is a vital subject of study about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Sociological Quest 1996 sociology through film uses feature films to teach central areas in sociology such as culture race ethnicity social class and gender sexuality by using film to introduce the sociological imagination students will experience social context being studied and reinforce critical thinking skills an introductory chapter includes a discussion of the significance of film in modern society a consideration of the ways that film both reflects and shapes social reality an explanation of how sociologists analyze film and coverage of sociological tools for reading film as text films will provide an illustrative framework for understanding the social world and therefore the films discussed will not go out of date

The Social Life of the Book 2011 excerpt from social life at rome in the age of cicero this book was originally intended to be a companion to professor tucker s life in ancient athens published in messrs macmillan s series of handbooks of archaeology and art but the plan was abandoned for reasons on which i need not dwell and before the book was quite finished i was called to other and f more specialised work as it stands it is merely an attempt to supply an educational want at our schools and universities we read the great writers of the last age of the republic and learn something of its political and constitutional history but there is no book in our language which supplies a picture of life and manners of education morals and religion in that intensely interesting period the society of the augustan age which in many ways was very different is known much better and of late my mend professor dill s fascinating volumes have familiarised us with the social life of two several periods of the roman empire but the age of cicero is in some ways at least as important as any period of the empire it is a critical moment in the history of graeco roman civilisation about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Of Social Life (Classic Reprint) 2018-03-22 this book brings the theme of prayer into anthropological discussion across diverse significant ethnographic case studies five anthropologists attend to prayers and how they are performed and seen to intervene in the social world the studies include pentecostals in zambia charismatic christians in ghana protestants in scotland eastern orthodox christians in romania and catholics in syria across these ethnographic cases the book argues that focusing on the social life of prayer offers a significant way to engage with matters close to people prayers are a way to map affect and the affective relationships people hold in what they are oriented towards and care about taking its cue from marcel mauss the book invites us to go beyond the individual and see how prayers always point to a broader social landscape of obligation and affective investment focusing on the social life of prayers the book posits accordingly entices a particular form of situated comparison of diverse christian traditions that pushes the scholarly conversation on christianity to consider central questions of agency responsibility and subjectivity taking up prayer as the object of study this book offers novel anthropological perspectives on christian life and practice the chapters in this book were originally published a special issue of religion
