in a draft attached to a letter to his friend and confidante wilhelm fliess may 31 1897 freud develops an idea the mechanism of fiction is the same as that of hysterical fantasies he supports this thought with a brief analysis of the biographical sources of goethe s werther a few months later on october 15 1897 freud mails fliess a detailed account of remembered events from his childhood that freud believed underlined the universality of oedipus rex and hamlet freud s foray into literature initiated the beginning of a new critical approach in essential papers on literature and psychoanalysis emanuel berman presents classic and contemporary papers written at the intersection of literature and psychoanalysis in bringing these essays together berman traces the development of a discipline that has often been plagued by a polarization between self confident single minded psychoanalysts reading literature as a series of case studies and literary loyalists who cling to manifest content or to the declared intentions of the authors accepting them at face value and depriving the work of its emotional complexity berman covers the full range of old and new perspectives and presents selections from today s mature phase this collection includes papers by sigmund freud steven marcus patrick j mahoney donald spence otto rank ernest jones ernst kris phyllis greenacre florence bonime and maryanne eckardt david werman ellen handler spitz jacques lacan shoshana felman norman n holland roy schaffer meredith anne skura gail s reed francis baudry rivka r eifermann and
