does an offender have the right to be punished the right to be punished may sound like an oxymoron but it is not necessarily so with the emergence of modern criminal law the offender gained the right to be punished by rational criminal law rather than being lynched by an angry mob the present day offender may have the right to be punished by doctrinal sentencing rather than being subjected to verdicts based on vague unclear and uncertain principles in modern criminal law the imposition of criminal liability follows accurate and strict rules whereas there are no similar rules for the imposition of punishment the process of sentencing is vague and obscure as are the considerations used for the imposition of punishments the objective of the present book is to propose a comprehensive general and legally sophisticated theory of modern doctrinal sentencing the challenges of such a legal theory are plenty and complex in addition to increasing clarity and certainty modern doctrinal sentencing must deal with modern types of delinquency e g organized crime recidivism corporate offenders high tech offenses etc and modern principles of criminal law modern doctrinal sentencing must serve to ensure optimal sentencing

Proceedings of the Parliament of South Australia 1859 in her work rebekah earnshaw provides an analysis of creator and creation according to calvin on genesis this offers a new theological reading of calvin s genesis commentary and sermons with an eye to systematic interests this analysis is presented in four chapters the creator the agent and act of creation creatures and providence calvin on genesis gives unique insights into each of these first the creator has priority in calvin s thought the creator is l eternal who is infinitely distinct and abundantly for creatures in his virtues second the agent of creation is triune and the act of creation is from nothing as well as in and with time this is a purposeful beginning third calvin affirms creaturely goodness and order the relation of humans and animals illustrates calvin s holistic view of creation as well as the impact of corruption and disorder providential sustenance and concursus are closely tied to the nature of creatures and the initial word fourth fatherly governance for the church is presented separately and demonstrated by calvin s treatment of abraham and joseph earlier presentations of calvin on creator and creation are incomplete because of the lack of sustained attention to calvin on genesis this analysis supplements works that concentrated on the institutes and calvin on job by bringing new material to bear further throughout this analysis lies the implicit example of a biblical theologian who pursues what is useful from scripture for the sake of piety in the church insights from calvin s thought on genesis provide a foundation for systematic work that reflects on this locus and the integrated practice of theology
