Educating for Intelligent Belief or Unbelief 1977

this book establishes an argument for deeper attention to the aesthetic qualities of literature to the question of the relation between the aesthetic and more immediate practical and urgent social and political matters it attempts to establish the intrinsic value of the aesthetic at the same time as it demonstrates that focus on the aesthetic does not preclude attention of the urgent questions with which works of art consistently engaged it argues that attention to the aesthetic does not diminish attention to these larger issues but in effect increases the power both of art and criticism to engage them fruitfully
