we have seen wrong about the world today i would like to write this book because i think this is a predestined opportunity of mine since i started to know and recognize about the society about the world and everything around me i have enjoyed exploring the world with my own thoughts inference and reasoning and it is predestined strange that a lot of true reasoning and inference points have come to me naturally they are the most basic points that bring me the methodology and justifications for all that i am going to discuss in this book another reason why i am writing this book is that i would like people to reconsider about the meaning of this world the highest purpose that comes from my heart and also the desire of almost everyone in this world which is towards a life with no war a life of joy peace and happiness for the humankind in this world so what does this book have or is this just an illusion or an exaggerated bragging of a trivial delusional illusionist i am writing this book with a style that may not be very good but the biggest concern for me is the quality and value of this book and i am writing in the simplest and easiest way for everyone to understand so what is the value of this book that can change and bring happiness to humankind if so can i become a great person like many other great people or am i just a mediocre person with crazy ideas i would like to tell you that before being praised as great people all of these people are just ordinary and anonymous ones and even a little crazy this book is likely to change the world so what does this book have let s find out
