the prisoners were slaughtered one by one with efficiency as true as a ticking clock two dozen dead now and the executioner was just hitting his stride the scene of the massacre was one of abject horror the stench of fresh blood the cloying smell of bodies floating in the brown lake the viscous brain matter splattered and thickening on the sun blached pier above the slaughter the rocky hillside sparkled in the midday heat the reflection of broken glass and twisted metal jutting out of the wreckage of a battle fought months ago many had died and the few vanquished who survived had run for their lives and left the ruined land to the victors the black flags of isis hung in the town square now and they waved from the rooftops of the wrecked buildings and whipped in the back of most every pickup truck that rolled through the broken streets certainly every vehicle that was filled to capacity with young bearded men wearing cheap tactical gear and brandishing weapons eyes wild with the fervency of their sickening death cult here by the lake between the broken hillside and the water ran a narrow shoreline of salt flat and brown brush forty three condemned men in orange jumpsuits knelt the remainder of the sixty seven who had been trucked here just twenty minutes earlier
