on the theology and christology of saint paul a collection of eight essays some new and some published elsewhere that sets forth some of the important aspects of paul the apostle s mission and teaching excerpt from the christian according to paul ye were at that time separate from christ alienated from the commonwealth of israel and strangers from the covenants of the promise having no hope and without god in the world eph 2 12 times have changed but have the hearts of men changed how truly do the outstanding words and phrases of this verse in which paul vividly described to the ephesians their state before they accepted christ picture the condition of those today who do not know christ what does it mean that they are apart from the company of those who live in christ s light what is the result of the fact that their manner of life has set them in opposition to the friends of christ is it a loss that they are strangers to his ways his thoughts his promises have they hope of any real good what is the effect of being without god how much real satisfaction can there be in the life that does not know him what book in the bible has most to say about hope who inspires hope how important a place does paul give to hope consult a concordance about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this christ and him crucified and that alone it is sent forth with the prayer that through the reading of these pages many will be led out of darkness into the glorious light of god s love and that the lord s people will be further equipped to render unto him effectual service having a more thorough working knowledge of the gospel of grace so important in true christian testimony all in all that our blessed redeemer and lord may be glorified from the preface leading biblical scholar james thompson explains that paul offers a coherent moral vision based not only on the story of christ but also on the norms of the law paul did not live with a sharp dichotomy of law and gospel and recognized the continuing importance of the law from publisher description was st paul a distorter of jesus original message or a faithful follower over recent years some critics of christianity have claimed that while jesus was a gifted teacher and a man of unparalleled kindness st paul was the true founder of christianity which he based on a delusional mistake the idea that jesus was god this theory has found its way into academia churches newspapers and most recently novels in did st paul get jesus right respected new testament scholar david wenham looks at the historical evidence for such claims comparing the life and message of jesus with the writings of st paul he offers a thoughtful exploration of their relationship concluding that far from imagining christianity paul was the messenger of an inherited faith what is the ultimate purpose of pastoral ministry what emphases and priorities should take precedence in the day to day emphasis on various pastoral roles and pragmatic concerns what can sometimes get lost is the theological foundation for understanding pastoral ministry james thompson is a new testament scholar with a concern for relating biblical studies to practical ministry here he does a careful study of several of paul s epistles in order to see what paul s vision and purpose were for his own ministry he finds that paul s aim was an ethical transformation of the communities not just individuals with which he worked so that they would live lives worthy of the gospel until christ s return using this as a framework thompson offers suggestions for practical application to contemporary ministry neil richardson invites readers who struggle to engage with paul s writings to take a fresh look and to rediscover the relevance of one of christianity s most maligned writers for today s church written in an accessible and conversational style the book shows how the findings of modern biblical scholarship need not be confined to the ivory towers but can be made accessible to a wider readership from bible teacher john macarthur a revelatory exploration of what the apostle paul actually taught about the good news of jesus the apostle paul penned a number of very concise focused passages in his letters to the early church that summarize the gospel message in just a few well chosen words each of these key texts has a unique emphasis highlighting some essential aspect of the good news of jesus christ the chapters in this revelatory new book closely examine those vital gospel texts one verse at a time john macarthur host of the popular media ministry grace to you tackles such questions as what is the gospel what are the essential elements of the message how can we be certain we have it right and how should christians be proclaiming the good news to the world as always the answers john macarthur gives are clear compelling well reasoned easy to grasp and above all thoroughly biblical the gospel according to paul is written in a style that is easily accessible to lay people including those who know very little about the bible while being of great value to seasoned pastors and experienced ministers the gospel according to paul is the third in a series of books on the gospel by john macarthur including the gospel according to jesus and the gospel according to the apostles the gospel according to paul is also available in spanish evangelio según pablo by the application of his own methodology the author of this text finds that in each of the six undisputed letters of paul there is a distinctive christology elaborated by paul in response to the specific pastoral problem or concern of the respective letter in the course of this study of the pertinent texts the author finds indications of paul s own pastoral theology namely that in jesus crucifixion resurrection and spirit is found god s own answer to every problem this study explores the relationship between the individual person the self the divine and other people in the writings of the apostle paul and the roman stoic epictetus it does so by examining self involving actions expressed with reflexive pronouns myself yourself etc in various kinds of sentences for example examine yourself and you do not belong to yourself after situating the topic within the fields of linguistics and ancient greek the study then examines the reflexive constructions in epictetus s discourses showing that reflexive texts express fundamental aspects of his ethic of rational self interest in imitation of the indwelling rational deity next the investigation examines the 109 reflexive constructions in paul providing an exegesis of each reflexive text and then synthesizing the results paul s reflexive phrases are essential statements of his theology and ethics expressing an interconnected narrative christology narrative apostolic identity and narrative ethic most importantly the study finds that for epictetus concern for others is a rational means to self realization whereas for paul concern for others is a community ethic grounded in the story of the indwelling christ and is the antithesis of self interest representing the fruit of a lifetime of study this work from a revered evangelical scholar provides a concise summary of paul s teaching about jesus over the years gordon fee has written and taught extensively on paul s understanding of the person of christ in this handy volume he offers the results of his exegetical work in a form accessible to any interested reader of scripture the book includes a foreword by cherith fee nordling paul s gospel is misunderstood paul s gospel is seen as his message perhaps an empowered message he saw it differently his gospel can be many things tradition about jesus jesus christ himself the ministry of jesus the replication of the ministry of jesus god s salvific drama the salvation experience of people a message and something that can and should be embodied or lived and the gospel does not come to people in paul s preaching he says it comes or takes place in both his message and the miraculous without the involvement and acts of god in the miraculous for paul there would have been no gospel any preaching it is not that the miraculous was simply a proof or demonstration of the gospel it was integral to it in the gospel s coming or establishment it is clear that at heart the gospel is god s salvation the presence of god himself in christ experienced in the symbiotic relationship between paul s message about god s son jesus christ and the activity of god in the miraculous not surprisingly then paul rarely talks of preaching the gospel he sees himself as gospelling rodney reeves contrasts easy spiritualities of serenity and retreat with the apostle paul s vision a cross shaped spirituality for fools making their way through life s trials responding to paul s invitation follow me as i follow christ reeves discovers an ancient spiritual path in the letters of paul explore jesus ministry by exploring his wilderness experience and the nature of his mission delve into detailed word studies investigate christological titles used by paul and come to a new appreciation of the ten commandments these in depth treatments will give you a better grip on key theological themes found throughout the bible it s march 12 2006 and i have a thought hello my name is paul ivanko and i m writing a book that comes from my soul a book that i believe people might quietly want or maybe perhaps should read one that in my heart believe to be right even if a bit deep one i believe that i have formulated the right thinking of how things really are and of how things really were a lot of it has to do with religion but most of it has to do with science the study and love for science for which that i believe is our future one saying that keeps coming up around me and in my life know thy self which that is what this book is probably all about 2020 burkitt medal for biblical studies when reading the book of romans we often focus on the quotable passages making brief stopovers and not staying long enough to grasp some of the big ideas it contains instead of raiding paul s most famous letter for a passage here or a theme there leading new testament scholar beverly roberts gaventa invites us to linger in romans she asks that we stay with the letter long enough to see how romans reframes our tidy categories and dramatically enlarges our sense of the gospel containing profound insights written in accessible prose and illuminating references to contemporary culture this engaging book explores the cosmic dimensions of the gospel that we read about in paul s letter gaventa focuses on four key issues in romans salvation identity ethics and community that are crucial both for the first century and for our own as she helps us navigate the book of romans she shows that the gospel is far larger wilder and more unsettling than we generally imagine it to be in the first major analysis of paul s understanding of gentile salvation in several years bible scholar terence donaldson offers a creative approach to the apostle s theological convictions according to donaldson paul as a believer in jesus christ did not abandon his jewish frame of reference but reconfigured it especially by the stimulus of his mission to the gentiles in a culture that is running from christ live free in christ is a must read with over 25 years in biblical studies i have yet to read such an in depth study on what it means to live in christ michael winfrey founder of teen talk this is a fresh and timely examination of living free in christ grounded in a careful handling of the apostle paul s letters this book offers sensitive encouragement to its readers the tone is pastoral the content is soundly biblical and the result is devotional i warmly recommend this offering for the sake of the church constantine r campbell phd associate professor of new testament trinity evangelical divinity school author paul and union with christ an exegetical and theological study you might ask so what does it mean to live free in christ it means everything this book will increase your awe of christ and the presence of the holy spirit after reading this book you will have a deeper level of humility commitment to the gospel and love towards others in this compelling portrait of paul the man his message and his world robin griffith jones reveals the apostle as a brilliantly entrepreneurial witness to the
