why do you believe what you believe you've been lied to probably a lot we're always stunned when we realize we've been deceived we can't believe we were fooled what was I thinking how could I have believed that we always wonder why we believed the lie but have you ever wondered why you believe the truth people tell you the truth all the time and you believe them and if at some later point you're confronted with evidence that the story you believed was indeed true you never wonder why you believed it in the first place in this incisive and insightful taxonomy of lies and liars New York Times bestselling author Aja Raden makes the surprising claim that maybe you should buttressed by history psychology and science the truth about lies is both an eye-opening primer on con artistry from pyramid schemes to shell games forgery to hoaxes and also a telescopic view of society through the mechanics of belief why we lie why we believe and how if at all the acts differ through wild tales of cons and marks Raden examines not only how lies actually work but also why they work from the evolutionary function of deception to what it reveals about our own in her previous book Stoned Raden asked what makes a thing valuable in the truth about lies she asks what makes a thing real with cutting wit and a deft touch Raden untangles the relationship of truth to lie belief to faith and deception to propaganda the truth about lies will change everything you thought you knew about what you know and whether you ever really know it speaking the truth about oneself is composed of lectures that acclaimed French philosopher Michel Foucault delivered in 1982 at the University of Toronto as is characteristic of his later work he is concerned here with the care and cultivation of the self which becomes the central theme of the second and third volumes of his famous History of Sexuality published in French in 1984 the month of his death and which are explored here in a striking and typically illuminating fashion throughout his career Foucault had always been interested in the question of how constellations of knowledge and power produce and constitute subjects but in the last phase of his life he became especially interested not only in how subjects are constituted by outside forces but in how they constitute themselves in this lecture series and accompanying seminar we find Foucault focused on antiquity starting with classical Greece the early Roman dynasties and concluding with fourth and fifth century Christian monasticism Foucault's claim is that in these periods we see the development of a new kind of act speaking the truth about oneself as the locus of a new form of subjectivity which he deemed important not just for historical reasons but also as something modernity could harness anew or adapt to its own purposes i am sure this book can bring god s enlightenment and wisdom in these last days in a much clearer way to people i have seen how the lack of wisdom has made western society crumble how everything is very confusing we no longer know what is true or false black or white good or bad the churches that once were the strong pillars that sustained and carried forward western society today have lost their credibility and power in the face of an increasingly unbelieving world even within the churches there is a lack of agreement because the guidance of the holy spirit has been lost and each christian thinks differently and not as god would like them to think to tell the truth i have felt this call of god for many years but i did not know how to begin until in these last two years god opened a door for me and made me write at first i did not think it was to make a book but after writing many things i felt that it was time to carry

because my books are so realistic stimulate the mind and the discussions come from true life situations many readers have asked me if my books are about me there is some of the author in each book he or she writes my stories basically come from everyday life the world my themes are taken from wherever i feel there is a need for someone to open up to feelings or express pain that might not be dealt with because of the extremity we must realize that we are living in a graphic pain ridden world a world that is changing faster than we care to accept a world that has become more visual and imperfect than ever before but nothing will be remedied if we try to keep our heads in the sand and pretend that nothing is different there are too many immature and irresponsible individuals selling or indulging in strong drugs alcohol playing house and suffering with aids and other harmful sexually transmitted diseases due to promiscuity and ignorance regarding sex sexuality intimate crimes and narcotic involvement ignorance and tunnel vision are not antidotes let s not remain ignorant let s stop being afraid let s stop saying no and turning our backs on those who need us because we believe that this type of behavior or epidemic can only happen to a certain kind of person let s stop saying that we can t change everybody and begin to help someone let s stop leaving all of the responsibility of correction in the hands of institutions and programs that we believe are available for people with problems of this nature the truth is that someone who is reaching out to you may never make it to these sources there are times when an institution might be the answer and times when just talking on a one on one basis is necessary in any event the right words can make a positive impact in someone s life forever just think about the things that you would love to discuss or confess but you would only be comfortable doing so with a select few or an elect individual then put yourself in someone else s shoes whose problem or problems are the same as yours or more severe this might help you to choose the option of reaching out or ignoring the problem until it goes away the truth about woman by c gasquoine catherine gasquoine hartley it is very difficult to write a preface to a work which is expressly intended as a revelation of the faith of the writer the successive stages of thought and emotion that have been passed through are still too near and one feels too deeply i have made several futile attempts to concentrate into a short note the truths about woman that i have tried to convey in my book i find it impossible to do this the explanation of one s own book would really require the writing of another book as mr bernard shaw has proved to us in his delightful prefaces but to do this one must be freed altogether from the limits of length and time the fragments of what i wish to say would be of no service to any one i then tried to place myself as it were outside the book and to look at it as a stranger might but the difficulties here were even greater i grew so interested in criticising my own opinions that my notes soon outran the possibilities of a preface in this spirit of genuine discrimination i became aware how easy it would be for any one who does not share my faith to find apparent contradictions of statement and errors in thought much that is feeble here extravagant there to notice some salient fault and to take it as decisive of the writer s incompetence i am tempted to point these out myself to guide and protect the reader now that my book is done i feel that i have touched only the veriest fringe of a vast subject but one thing i may say i have tried to express the truth as i have come to see it the conception i have of woman is not new it is very old and for that reason it will be rejected by many women to day at present the inspiration towards freedom in the woman s movement has involved a tendency to follow individual paths without waiting to consider to what end they lead there has arisen a sort of glamour about freedom no one of us can be free for no one of us stands alone we are all members one of another and woman s destiny is rooted in the race this rightly considered is the most vital of all vital facts i appeal to women to realise more clearly their true place and gifts as representing that original racial motherhood out of which the masculine and feminine characters have arisen we are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive classic library collection many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public the aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades the contents of the vast majority of titles in the classic library have been scanned from the original works to ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work we hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
