C. Clifton Black provides a thorough analysis of the most famous prayer in the Christian church the Lord's Prayer. He begins with an impressionist painting of how the ancients prayed during Jesus' time in order to set the context for understanding the prayer he taught his disciples. Throughout the book, Black systematically interprets the rich meanings of each part of the Lord's Prayer. Additionally, he includes an overview of Christian thought on the Lord's Prayer from early church mothers and fathers like Tertullian and Teresa of Avila to modern theologians like Karl Barth. Uniquely, this book is an academic study of the Lord's Prayer with a focus on the rhetorical culture from which it developed as well as the theological, literary, and historical meanings of the prayer itself.

intimacy when we are given the privilege of entering the presence of our heavenly father our minds have drifted off we speak the words of the prayer not from our hearts but from the autopilot of memory this is mere recitation not prayer if in relationships familiarity breeds contempt in the case of the lord s prayer familiarity breeds thoughtlessness the lord s prayer confessing the new covenant is not a bible study in the traditional sense it challenges us to think about the lord s prayer anew by understanding it as a confession of the new covenant that christ makes with us when we are made children of god in baptism in hearing these familiar words afresh we learn to remember our baptismal covenant so that we might live more fully into that new relationship with god and with one another
