a masterful updating of a classic work st francis de sales 1567 1622 bishop of geneva and founder of the visitation order of nuns was renowned for his teachings on spirituality his masterpiece in the field of spiritual literature was the introduction to the devout life revolutionary in its day and noted for its charm warmth and clarity of language it set forth a spirituality oriented toward life in the world an approach quite different from that of st francis de sales s contemporaries who saw spiritual perfection as possible only in religious life while the message of the introduction to devout life is still valid today the fact is that its expression is quite dated in this book as in bringing the imitation of christ into the 21st century father meninger is not offering a new translation or paraphrase of a spiritual classic rather he is attempting to express the teachings of the original in a wholly the most terrible disaster that one group of human beings can inflict on another is war wars cause misery on an indescribable scale yet we go on doing it to one another generation after generation why warfare is a recurrent and universal characteristic of human existence the mythologies of practically all peoples abound in wars and the superhuman deeds of warriors and pre literate communities apparently delighted in the recital of stories about battles since our species became literate a mere 5 000 years ago written history has mostly been the history of wars thousands who knew war evidently sickened of it and dreamt of lasting peace expressing their vision in literature and art in philosophy and religion they imagined utopias freed of martial ambition and bloodshed which harked back to the golden age of classical antiquity to the christian vision of a paradise lost and to the arcadia of greek and latin poetry so richly celebrated in the canvases of claude and poussin all these things bear eloquent testimony to the human longing for peace but they have not triumphed over our dreadfully powerful propensity to
