were both dead algernon charles swinburne had long since retired to putney the pre raphaelite movement had subsided thomas hardy was still known only as a novelist the minor poets seemed stereotyped into two groups those who like oscar wilde produced swinburne and water and those who wrote frail imitations of the french of paul verlaine the only new and original talent was that of rudyard kipling who had already published his two most famous volumes yet despite kipling s vigor the spirit of the age was best represented by the yellow book and aubrey beardsley s illustrations for alexander pope s the rape of the lock 1712 it was in this atmosphere of purple patches and fine phrases that there appeared a shropshire lad a slender volume containing sixty three short poems some only eight lines long written by the professor of latin at university college london a shropshire lad is a celebrated collection of lyrical poems penned by a e housman an english classical scholar and poet published
