~~vital role in the execution of a wide range of documents~~
whenever individuals see a document that has been notarized they should be confident that the notarial act has been performed correctly as a notary public it is your responsibility to use intelligence and judgment and always perform your duties as required by connecticut state law you must remember that others are relying on your honesty and integrit a notary is a public official responsible for independently verifying signatures and oaths depending on how a document is written a notarization serves to affirm the identity of a signer and the fact that they personally executed their signature a notarization or notarial act officially documents the identity of a party to a document or transaction and the occasion of the signing that others can rely upon usually at face value a notary s authentication is intended to be reliable to avoid the inconvenience of having to locate a signer to have them personally verify their signature as well as to document the execution of a document perhaps long after the lifetime of the signer and the notary an oath is a sworn statement in most cases a person will swear that a written statement oral statement or testimony they are about to give is true a notary can document that the notary administered an oath to an individual the origins of the notary public trace back to the days of the roman republic today the position remains important in our republic as the overseer of the notary seal for south dakota our office produces this reference handbook for notaries in this state this handbook contains south dakota s notary statutes definitions of terms commonly used in performing notarial acts and the procedures for becoming a notary public in south dakota referencing this booklet will help the notary have a greater understanding of the decisions responsibilities and obligations entrusted to each notary public the oath of notary public carries a serious obligation once appointed and commissioned a notary public becomes a public officer charged with special trust and confidence in integrity and ability to faithfully serve the public the notary public must be knowledgeable about his or her responsibilities
