in any person of advancing age i doubt he or she has never said knowing what i know now i wish i could live my life over again foolishness true but still it s a nice thought to linger over the story within this novel once again relates to that engaging wish we have two heroes in this novel and both are in the same person that made the writing difficult at times but i feel i made it work michael and barth begin as totally different people with different minds sets one is a good and decent man and the other cares little for others he gambles carouses with women of ill repute his curses would make a sailor blush and he at times hangs out with bottom feeders still there is something endearing about him and the two together make an interesting pair will this second life turn out differently than the first or does disaster wait i feel the characters are real and interesting and at times the reader will wonder who is controlling who as usual in my novels i have taken ordinary people and placed them in extraordinary situations i doubt that this story line has been used before in this manner and i do hope you enjoy one again
