payne has the gift as does john keegan of using prose to elevate facts figures dates and events into the realms of the dramatic book reviewer based on entirely fresh primary research leonardo presents important new information and perspectives on one of the most interesting men and greatest geniuses of all time the following are only a few of the new and controversial findings offered by payne in this highly readable book the portrait of bearded man universally accepted as a self portrait is actually a drawing of leonardo s father the subject of the mona lisa was not the wife of a merchant but the duchess of milan among the illustrations in the book are two earlier seldom seen mona lisas leonardo was not the son of a peasant woman as it is generally thought he was but of a high born woman payne paints an extraordinarily convincing picture of leonardo not only as a giant of his age but also as a man human real simple and natural besides dispelling many myths about him the author places his subject realistically in his own time the summit of the italian renaissance with its wars and sudden upheavals its unsurpassed artists and architects its ambitious and often warring princes leonardo is a meticulously accurate book and it reads like a swiftly paced novel everyone who reads the bible must admit that it tells us to do things that we never have done and cannot do in our fleshly bodies one reason is that god our creator is telling us what he wants us to be and do as created in his image and likeness our purpose is in our image and likeness of god our creator not like the dust of the ground or the flesh of our parents most children dont know that they are created in the image and likeness of god and their parents have not asked god for his spirit for their children so they can be taught this vital truth the reason parents dont ask god for his spirit for their children is because they dont recognize the need for him there are several things mankind cannot do in the flesh and they must recognize their origin in the image and likeness of god mankind must recognize being in the image and likeness of god to first love god with all their being and love his neighbors as himself second to obey god and his parents as required in gods word third to trust god with all his heart fourth to worship god in spirit and in truth and fifth to glorify god in his body and spirit which are god the devil does not want mankind to know that he is created in the image and likeness of god because man will always defeat satan and fulfill god s will ali mirsepassi s book presents a powerful challenge to the dominant media and scholarly construction of radical islamist politics and their anti western ideology as a purely islamic phenomenon derived from insular traditional and monolithic religious foundations it argues that the discourse of political islam has strong connections to important and disturbing currents in western philosophy and modern western intellectual trends the work demonstrates this by establishing links between important contemporary iranian intellectuals and the central influence of martin heidegger s philosophy we are also introduced to new democratic narratives of modernity linked to diverse intellectual trends in the west and in non western societies notably in india where the ideas of john dewey have influenced important democratic social movements as the first book to make such connections it promises to be an important contribution to the field and will do much to overturn some pervasive assumptions about the dichotomy between east and west
