historians have noted the connections between the wesleyan methodist movement that began in the eighteenth century the emergence of african american methodist traditions and an interdenominational holiness movement in the nineteenth century and the birth of pentecostalism in the twentieth century this volume written by historians theologians and pastors builds on that earlier work the contributors present a diverse array of key figures denominational leaders and mavericks institutional loyalists and come outers clergy and laity who embodied these movements the authors show that in spite of their differing historical and cultural contexts these movements constitute a distinct theological family whose confident and expectant faith in the transforming power of god has significant implications for the renewal of the contemporary church and its faithfulness to god s mission in the world today contributors corky alexander estrelda alexander kimberly ervin alexander leslie d callahan barry l callen douglas r cullum dennis c dickerson d william faupel philip hamner david aaron johnson j c kelley henry h knight iii william c kostlevy diane k leclerc joshua j mcmullen rodney mcneall stephen w rankin harold e raser douglas m strong matthew k thompson wallace thornton jr l f thuston arlene sanchez walsh steven j land laura guy john h wigger
