excerpt from reports of cases argued and determined in the superior court of the city of new york new york superior court reports vol 57 jones and spencer s reports vol 25 the defendant corporation made a call upon its stockholders generally including the plaintiffs of 50 per share in this call it was declared that any stockholder might assign to the corporation his shares and that in such a case the corporation would issue to him a certificate for one half of the number of shares assigned and the assignment should be in satisfaction of the call the plaintiffs claimed in this action that such a call was not authorized by law and was invalid be cause the shares of the company had been before the call fully paid for and were not assessable and the corporation was not authorized by law to take any thing but cash in payment for shares it however appears that if the plaintiffs were not liable to the threatened consequences of the call they would not be injured by other shareholders acceding to the terms of the call about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from illinois circuit court reports vol 1 reports of cases decided in the circuit superior criminal probate county and municipal courts in illinois and including the unreported decisions of the supreme court of illinois the editors feel that they owe no apology for the publication of the present series of reports it is doubtless true that there are too many law books but this criticism is not justly directed against a report of adjudged cases the general principles of law are well settled and the difficulties arise not in the determination of those principles but in their application to the varying facts and circumstances of the particular case the practice of the law thus necessitates a continual search for precedent a decision of a nisi prius court may become of great value especially where the supreme or appellate court has not passed upon the question it is a well known fact that many of the most important cases are finally adjudicated without an appeal in the lower courts in many of these cases judges of unquestioned learning and ability have filed carefully prepared opinions a few of these opinions have been published in the legal periodicals but inasmuch as the contents of such periodicals are not digested the opinions are consequently inaccessible about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
