House Documents 1858 this innovative approach to dealing with communication difficulties was devised by the author following encounters with increased numbers of children who had learned to talk but still were unable to communicate effectively this new theory of communication development devised in the late 1990s has been successfully used by the author and a wide range of educators and promotes the good use of non verbal skills in children this programme changes the lives of the children in the family and at school who benefit from it the book will look at non verbal communication theory normal and disordered development problems arising behaviour social skills emotions education in the family prevention assessment and intervention generally those children with poor non verbal skill development will have limited ability to how you can apply it to your secondary school teaching to support deep and effective learning in your classroom metacognition is a popular topic in teaching and learning debates but it s rarely clearly defined and can be difficult for teachers to understand how it can be applied in the classroom this book offers a clear introduction to applying metacognition in secondary teaching exploring the what when how and why of using metacognition in classrooms with real life examples of how this works in practice this is a detailed and accessible resource that offers ~~other useful developments in the primary classroom~~ the authors study classroom interaction and relationships and consider how these might be structured for the best outcomes with so much attention being focused recently on the national curriculum the authors provide a balance for the current curricula orientated view of teaching by improving understanding of how curricula are implemented in the classroom motivation and the social development of primary age children are covered as well as relationships and social interaction in the classroom gender and special
