story of robert walker haulage established in 1935 robert walker never intended to run a haulage business he initially bought a lorry to carry the produce from his market garden to the local markets he then branched out into other types of transport work including carrying prisoners of war later his forward thinking sons brian and eric saw a niche market in the transport of fork lift trucks and decided to try converting an old r a f trailer into an early fork lift truck carrier today the company is in the hands of the third and fourth generations of the family and despite its humble beginnings it is now the largest fork truck transporter in the uk the book details the history of the company s success including anecdotes from people that have worked for or with the company over the years it details how walkers carried donald campbell s bluebird around on his exhibition tour of 1965 after setting his land speed records between 1955 and 1964 and shows how erf played a major role in the expansion of the fork truck transport business including 229 previously un printed pictures of the four wheel basic lorries that robert used in the early days to the latest vehicles operated by this specialist haulier this book will be of interest to truck drivers and other transport enthusiasts field stream america s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations vivid first accounts of the fight for fallujah collected just days or weeks after events collated and contextualised by marine field historian lt col david e kelly in march 2004 the unprovoked ambush killing and desecration of the bodies of american civilian security contractors in fallujah iraq caused the national command authorities in washington dc to demand that the newly arrived marine expeditionary force there take action against the perpetrators and other insurgent forces planned stability and support operations were cast aside as insurgent fighters dared the marines to enter fallujah marine infantrymen tankers helicopter crews and amphibious vehicle drivers all pitched into high intensity battles and firefights during the first fights of fallujah in april 2004 across the board cooperation and innovation marked these fighting marines in combined arms fights that no one expected marines fought in the streets conducted house to house searches cleared buildings of enemy and used tank main guns in direct support of urban environment operations helicopter crews supported operations on the ground with rockets and machine gun fire and amtrac marines transported forces to face enemy rpg and machine gun fire marines from infantry squad members to a battalion commander were interviewed by marine corps field historians within days or weeks of the events at nearby combat outposts and camps this book combines these interview notes and the words of the men themselves to create a unique narrative of marines in this combat casualties only stiffened the will of the marines to crush the enemy a late april political plan called for the withdrawal of marine forces from the city and marines at every level though frustrated understood the need to allow this attempted solution to play itself out over
