lore van de oest awoke in an alley to the splash of rain she was naked a foot long gash in her back was still bleeding and her identity implant was gone she had been the daughter of one of the world s most powerful families and now she was nobody and she had to hide winner of the nebula award for best novel 1996 she awoke in an alley to the splash of rain she was naked a foot long gash in her back was still bleeding and her identity implant was gone lore van oesterling had been the daughter of one of the world s most powerful families and now she was nobody and she had to hide then out of the rain walked spanner predator and thief who took her in cared for her wound and taught her how to reinvent herself again and again no one could find lore now not the police not her family and not the kidnappers who had left her in that alley to die she had escaped but the cost of her newfound freedom was crime and deception and she paid it over and over again until she had become someone she loathed lore had a choice she could stay in the shadows stay with spanner and risk losing herself forever or she could leave spanner and find herself again by becoming someone else stealing the identity implant of a dead woman taking over her life and creating a new future but to start again lore required spanner s talents spanner who needed her and hated her and who always had a price and even as lore agreed to play spanner s game one final time she found that there was still the price of being a van oesterling to be paid only by confronting her family her past and her own demons could lore meld together who she had once been who she had become and the person she intended to be aud it rhymes with shroud torvingen is six feet tall with blond hair and blue eyes she can restore a log cabin with antique tools or put a man in a coma with her bare hands as imagined by nicola griffith in this ferocious masterpiece of literary noir aud is a hero who combines the tortured complexity with moral authority in the aftermath of her lover s murder the last thing a grieving aud wants is another case against her better judgment she agrees to track down an old friend s runaway fiancée and finds herself up against both a sociopath so artful that the law can t touch him and the terrible specters of loss and guilt as stylish as this year s prada and as arresting as a razor at the throat stay places nicola griffith in the first rank of new wave crime writers from the trade paperback edition a police lieutenant with the elite red dogs until she retired at twenty nine aud torvigen is a rangy six footer with eyes the color of cement and a tendency to hurt people who get in her way born in norway into the failed marriage between a scandinavian diplomat and an american businessman she now makes atlanta her home luxuriating in the lush heat and brashness of the new south she glides easily between the world of silken elegance and that of sleaze and sudden savagery equally at home in both functional deadly and temporarily quiescent like a folded razor on a humid april evening between storms out walking just to stay sharp she turns a corner and collides with a running woman catching the scent of clean rain soaked hair aud nods and silently tells the stranger today you are lucky and moves on when behind her house explodes incinerating its sole occupant a renowned art historian when aud turns back the woman is gone from cult phenomenon to award winning literary sensation the sexiest action figure since james bond seattle weekly returns in an exhilarating new thriller it doesn t matter how well trained you are how big how fast how strong there will always be someone out there bigger or faster or stronger always that s what aud torvingen teaches the students in her self defense class but the question is whether aud really believes this lesson herself and if not what it will take for her to learn it aud has trained herself to achieve a fierce machine like precision in hand to hand combat as well as life but in always she is abruptly confronted with the limits of her own power her self defense classes spin violently out of her grasp and still reeling from the consequences she embarks on a seemingly simple investigation of seattle real estate fraud that pulls her into something far more complicated and dangerous than she had imagined
