Concepts of Aesthetic Education 2013-11-12 focusing on his evocative and profound references to children and their stories children's stories and child time in the works of Joseph Cornell and the transatlantic avant garde studies the relationship between the artist's work on childhood and his search for a transfigured concept of time this study also situates Cornell and his art in the broader context of the transatlantic avant garde of the 1930s and 40s Analisa Leppanen Guerra explores the children's stories that Cornell perceived as fundamental in order to unpack the dense network of associations in his under studied multimedia works moving away from the usual focus on his box constructions the author directs her attention to Cornell's film and theater scenarios explorations dossiers and book objects one highlight of this study is a work that may well be the first artist's book of its kind and has only been exhibited twice untitled journal d agriculture pratique presented as Cornell's enigmatic tribute to Lewis Carroll's Alice books

Children's Stories and 'Child-Time' in the Works of Joseph Cornell and the Transatlantic Avant-Garde 2019-01-31 Rosenblum Berenice Abbott Elizabeth McCausland Roy Stryker and Paul U Kellogg the letters to his longtime collaborator Kellogg the editor of the survey graphic form the book's centerpiece often witty and lyrical the letters reveal his early influences in the social welfare community his views about Alfred Stieglitz and the photo secession a group of art photographers led by Stieglitz who eschewed social photographs for soft focus mood manipulating

PHOTO STORY 2023-11-18 this one of a kind book reveals the secrets of a story's power to persuade inspire influence and to teach our brains have been evolutionarily hardwired to think to make sense and to understand in simple but hidden story terms you'll discover the neural story net the make sense mandate motive matching and the story influence line and understand how these powerful concepts control listener reader engagement attention and the impact your communications will exert you'll learn that what reaches the conscious mind of your target audience is significantly different from what first reached their eyes and ears and that you can control that internal neural process this easy to use guide is organized into four parts the neuroscience of narrative your story tools how narratives exert influence changing beliefs attitudes values etc and the straightforward process of creating story smart stories

Story Smart 2010-01-01 the nature of representation is a central topic in philosophy this is the first book to connect problems with understanding representational artifacts like pictures diagrams and inscriptions to the philosophies of science mind and art can images be a source of knowledge are images merely conventional signs like words what is the relationship between the observer and the observed in this clear and stimulating introduction to the problem John V Kulvicki explores these questions and more he discusses the nature of pictorial experience and seeing in recognition resemblance pretense and structural theories of depiction images as aids to scientific discovery and understanding mental imagery and the nature of perceptual content photographs as visual prostheses in so doing he assesses central problems in the philosophy of images such as how objects we make come to represent other things and how we distinguish kinds of representation pictures diagrams graphs from one another essential reading for students and professional philosophers alike the book also contains chapter summaries annotated further reading and a glossary

Images 2013-12-16 too often buddhism has been subjected to the procrustean box of western thought whereby it is stretched to fit fixed categories or had essential aspects lopped off to accommodate vastly different cultural norms and aims after several generations of scholarly discussion in english speaking communities it is time to move to the next hermeneutical stage buddhist philosophy must be liberated from the confines of a quasi religious stereotype and judged on its own merits hence this work will approach chinese buddhism as a philosophical tradition in its own right not as an historical after thought nor as an occasion for comparative discussions that assume the west alone sets the standards for or is the origin of philosophy and its methodologies viewed within their own context chinese buddhist philosophers have much to contribute to a wide range of philosophical concerns including metaphysics epistemology ethics philosophy of language philosophy of mind and philosophy of religion even though western divisions of philosophy may not exhaust the rich contents of chinese buddhist philosophy

Dao Companion to Chinese Buddhist Philosophy 2016-03-23 the first aim of the dfe s 2022 strategy for sustainability and climate change is to prepare all young people for a world impacted by climate change through learning and practical experience this practical text for new teachers empowers them to develop their knowledge and understanding of climate change and sustainability it supports them to develop confidence in discussing difficult themes and to create safe learning spaces that allow children to articulate concerns the book provides a structure for learning and teaching about climate change and sustainability across the primary curriculum all chapters are linked to relevant and authentic research and include suggestions for practical activities

Teaching Climate Change and Sustainability in the Primary Curriculum 2021-01-26 this book argues that there is a complex logical and epistemological interplay between the concepts of metaphor narrative and emotions they share a number of important similarities and connections in the first place all three are constituted by aspect seeing the seeing as or perception of gestalts secondly all three are meaning endowing devices helping us to furnish our world with meaning thirdly the threesome constitutes a trinity emotions have both a narrative and metaphoric structure and we can analyse the concepts of metaphors and narratives partly in each other s terms further the concept of narratives can partly be analysed in the terms of emotions and if emotions have both a narrative structure and a metaphoric one then the concept of emotions must to some extent be analysable through the concepts of narratives and metaphors but there is more metaphors especially poetic ones are important tools for the understanding of the tacit sides of emotions perhaps because of the metaphoric structure of emotions the notion that narrations can be tools for understanding emotions follows from two facts narrations are devices for explanation and emotions have a narrative structure fourthly the threesome has an impact on our rationality it has become commonplace to say that emotions have a cognitive content that narratives have an explanatory function and that metaphors can perform cognitive functions this book is the first attempt to articulate the implications that these new ways of seeing the three concepts entail for our concept of reason the cognitive roles of the threesome suggest a richer notion of rationality than has traditionally been held a rationality enlivened with metaphoric narrative and emotive qualities Metaphors, Narratives, Emotions 2012-11-06 history in the early years is an innovative and accessible guide to helping young children explore the past through their environment family history and story this fully revised edition includes guidance on introducing children to the past at the foundation stage in school and pre school settings throughout it shows how the requirements of the early years curriculum can be met in innovative ways and is fully illustrated by case study examples of children s learning and also supported by recent research the book will support both new and experienced early years practitioners in developing young children s sense of identity through history it encourages practitioners to ensure that history is a significant dimension of early years education and will be essential reading for all teachers in the early and primary years

History in the Early Years 2016-12-28 this companion provides an authoritative source for scholars and students of the nascent field of media geography while it has deep roots in the wider discipline the consolidation of media geography has started only in the past decade with the creation of media geography s first dedicated journal aether as well as the publication of the sub discipline s first textbook however at present there is no other work which provides a comprehensive overview and grounding by indicating the sub discipline s evolution and hinting at its future this volume not only serves to encapsulate what geographers have learned about media but also will help to set the agenda for expanding this type of interdisciplinary exploration the contributors leading scholars in this field including stuart aitken deborah dixon derek mccormack barney warf and matthew zook not only review the existing literature within the remit of their chapters but also articulate arguments about where the future might take media geography scholarship the volume is not simply a collection of individual offerings but has afforded an opportunity to exchange ideas about media geography with contributors making connections between chapters and developing common themes

The Routledge Research Companion to Media Geography 2001 at stias the health in transition theme includes a programme to address the epidemic rise in the incidence of non communicable diseases ncids such as type 2 diabetes hypertension obesity coronary heart disease and stroke in africa the aim is to advance awareness research capacity and knowledge translation of science related to the developmental origins of health and disease dohad as a means of preventing ncids in future generations application of dohad science is a promising avenue for prevention as this field is identifying how health and nutrition from conception through the first 1 000 days of life can dramatically impact a developing individual s future life course and specifically predicate whether or not they are programmed in infancy to develop ncids in later life prevention of ncids is an essential strategy as if unchecked the burden of caring for a growing and ageing population with these diseases threatens to consume entire health budgets as well as negatively impact the quality of life of millions africa in particular needs specific focussed endeavors to realize the maximal preventive potential of dohad science and a means of generating governmental and public awareness about the links between health in infancy and disease in adult life this volume summarizes the expertise and experience of a leading group of international scientists led by abdallah daar brought together at stias as part of the health in transition programme
